Enclosure.

From F. A. Nicholson Esquire.

Collector of ANANTAPUR.

To The Secretary to the Commissioner of Land Revenue

MADRAS.

Sir,

6th Aug. 1895

I have the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to recommend to Government the exemption from passing the precis writing test until the results of the ensuing Special Test examination are published of S. C. Srinivas a bhair B. A. permanent magisterial clerk on Rs 60 of my office and ap: Vernacular Head clerk on Rs 70, who has now been appointed by me to act as English Head clerk on Rs 150. He appeared for the test in October last, but failed. He is a graduate in Arts and was appointed as ap: Vernacular Head Clerk in June 1894 and during the period of more than a year that he has held this post he has given me complete satisfaction and he is an able and excellent man of extremely good character and is well fitted for higher appointments. Excepting this technical disqualification, he has the best claims for the ap: vacancy of English Head Clerk's place.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

A.S.L.

He should be distinctly given to understand that no further exemption will be granted to him

Note. He was acting in the appointment in June 1894 & might have been confirmed of that office vacant but note 1 to P.C. Ch.

M. R. S. C. Srinivasachari will be exempted from passing the Precis Writing test until the results of the examination of October next are announced.

2. The Collector should be called upon to explain how S. C. Srinivasachari was continued in his Acting Appointment of Vernacular Head Clerk on Rs 70, even after he failed to pass the last Precis-Writing test.

Col 6/8/95

To the Bd of Rev (L.R.) 240.

Note

This man ~~appears~~ appeared for the Precis Writing test of October last but failed to pass. His permanent app~~oint~~

Appointment is worth Rs 60 & he has been acting as Vernacular Head Clerk on Rs 70 from June 1894, prior to the operation of the present Public Serv. Notification. Under the new rules, a pass in the Precise Writing Test is necessary in the case of all appointments ~~above~~ carrying salaries above Rs 60. It is not therefore clear how the Collector continued Mr R. Srinivasa Chari as Vernacular Head Clerk even after the results of the Examⁿ of October last were made known. ^{under act. note 15 P.C.N.}

It does not seem advisable that a person who appeared for & failed to pass the Precise Writing Test should be exempted from this test for any period. This ~~view~~ ^{view} was held by Govt ~~recently~~ ^{recently} in the case of Mr R. V. Katakishuakka, Clerk of the Chief Secretariat, (G.O. 182 of 19.2.95, sent up to Govt on the 13th inst. in connection with his letter applying again for exemption).

But as the present application is from the Anantapur District, the exemption may, it is submitted, be sanctioned, especially as which is
