Madras,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

(Through the Accountant-General)

SIR,

The Superintendent, Reformatory School, Chingleput, requests that the service of the Head Peon of his School may be considered superior under Section 435 of the Civil Service Regulations as his pay exceeds Rs 10- the pay of the appointment being Rs 15- and as his position is quite equal to that of a head warder in the Jail Department, whose service is considered superior under the Section quoted above. I beg to submit herewith a statement furnished to me by the Superintendent, showing the nature of the work done by the Head Peon of his school as compared with that of a head warder in the Jail Department, from which it will be seen that the duties and responsibilities of the former do not seem to be in any way inferior to those of the latter. It seems to me, therefore, that the non-inclusion of the Head Peon's appointment in the Schedule annexed to the section quoted above is merely an omission. If my surmise is correct, I beg to request that the service of the head Peon of the Reformatory School may be considered superior under the Civil Service Regulations.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

D. Duncan

Nature of work done by the Head Peon of the Reformatory School Chief Peon, as Compared with that of a Head Warden in a Jail.

Nature of Head Peon's duties and responsibilities.

The Head Peon, or Chief Peon, as he is designated in the school rules, is, subject to the general Control of the Deputy Superintendent, the Head of the Peon establishment and responsible for its working and for the due carrying out of all rules relating to it. He sees that the Peons are at their respective posts during the day and that they perform their duties bringing off one every irregularity he may observe to the notice of the Deputy Superintendent. He maintains the Peons' night duty roster.

2. He is invariably present at the first or principal locking up hour to help the Deputy Superintendent in counting the boys and locking them up, and he is also present at the unlocking hour. 3. He has to call the roll of the boys three times a day when they are not engaged in General Education or instructed.

4. He weighs every boy on the first Sunday of each month and enters his weight in the Weight and Register which he produces to the Deputy Superintendent on the following day.

Nature of Chief Warden's duties as laid down in the Jail Code.

"The Chief Warden is, subject to the general Control of the Jailor, the head of the Warden establishment and responsible for its working and for the due carrying out of all rules relating to it. He shall supervise the drill and practice in musketry of the men, the attendance of the standing guard, the mounting of sentries, reliefs etc. He shall keep the attendance, duty, clothing, and other rosters and rolls of the Warden establishment. He shall be responsible for the smartness and cleanliness of his men and for their being at all times properly dressed. He shall be invariably be present with the Jailor and, if necessary, assist at unlocking and locking up. He shall visit the guards and sentries frequently both by day and night and make an entry of the hours of these visits and of any irregularities he may discover in his Report Book, which he shall maintain in form similar to that of the Jailor and submit daily to the Superintendent."

"He shall have charge of the whole of the arms, ammunition, uniform and equipment of every description of the Warden establishment and of the accounts relating thereto. He shall be responsible for the cleanliness of the Wardens' lines, shall satisfy him-

5. He keeps the Dhoby's account as regards self that the line latrines are kept in a thoroughly sanitary condition, and shall report the inhabitants of a hut which he finds to be dirty.

6. On every alternate Sundays he takes charge of the boys on their evening walk from dusk to the school.

7. He obtains from the bazaar all petty ordinary articles of school use such as kerosine oil, ground nut oil, lamp wick, chalk ropes etc., and all petty materials for the manufactory department, such as nails, paddy husk, brooms, string, rice etc. all of which he is in charge of.

8. He superintends the shaving of the boys' heads once a month, and also their oil baths.

9. He is generally the deputy Superintendent.
