Read the following letter from the Deputy Commissioner, Central Division, dated 7th July 1895, No 2896:—

"In view of the arrangements for the extension of T. T. area I beg to submit the names of the following deserving Petty officers for exemption from Examination rules in order that they may be appointed Sub Inspectors and to remark as follows:—

(1) No 477. Angappa Pillai 2nd grade Jemadar Cone long circle. was entertained on 21st May 1888 as a 2nd grade Duffadar on Rs 9 and has steadily risen to be 2nd grade Jemadar on 26th February 1893. He has an approved service of over

6 years in this department and has borne an excellent character. He would have been a first grade gumadar by this time but for the fact that there is only one such post in the Cone long circle. He was 5 years in the army and took his discharge as he regiment in which he first entered was disbanded. He is strong and knows his drill thoroughly and can speak Tamil and Teluga and writes the former language well. He can also read and write English a little.

(2) No 132 Pyda Meah 1st grade Gumadar Beemore Circle. entered Government service on 19th May 1867 as Peon on Rs 6 in the Survey Department from where he was transferred to this department as a first grade peon on Rs 8 in the Assistant Commissioner's

Commissioner's office, Chingleput. He has since steadily risen to be 1st grade Gumadar on Rs 15 on 1st February 1883.
He has done much preventive work and bears an excellent character.
His vernacular is Tamil. He also knows some English.

(3) No 141 Lutehuiah Naidu 1st grade Gumadar Tado Circle. This man entered the Department as a second-grade Duffadar on Rs 9 on 7th February 1882 and steadily rose till he was 1st grade gumadar on 1st November 1885. He is very strong and bears an excellent character. In 1892 he was dismissed by the late Mr. Sneyd for unauthorized possession and transfer of Government stores in connection with the Madras Depot shooting case, but he was reinstated by Government in 1893 with all arrears of pay (which 6 year G.O. No 2552 dated July 11/1894) in bome The grounds that no neglect of duty have has been proved against him but lyt. that on the contrary he is entitled there to credit for the readiness with which could he came forward with valuable evidence in the murder case. I venture regu to think that the Government was was absolutely right in its judgment known in this case. He has since been inspe the Tada Circle where he has given the Mr Hindu the greatest possible satisfaction. His vernacular is Tamil.

(2) (4) No 104 Kristnaswamy Dyk 1st 2nd grade Jemadar, Bangalore Circle: was entertained on 1st June 1884 as a 2nd grade Duffadar on Rs 7 and rose to the 1st grade Jemadar on 1st April 1894. He is a respectable strong-looking man

man and his character is good.
He can read and write Tamil well and can converse in Telugu. He also knows a little English. In July 1890, he was reduced from 2nd grade Jemadar to 1st grade Duffadar consequent upon the reorganization of the old Bangalore circle, but again promoted and became 1st grade Jemadar on 1st April 1894.

(5) No 344 Theenivasalu Nade, 2nd grade Jemadar, Merhann Circle.
He was first entertained as a 2nd grade Duffadar on Rs 7 on 10th July 1883 and has steadily risen to the 2nd grade Jemadar on 1st June 1894.
In 1888 he was suspended in connection with some frauds in the Brahm Fish Curing Yard and charged, but was acquitted and reinstated.
With this exception, he has borne a good good character and as he was acquitted and reinstated I do not think the matter should now stand in his way as he is otherwise fit and promising. He can read and write English well. His Vernacular is Telugu.

The Department as a 1st grade Peon on Rs 8 on 26th April 1885 and steadily worked his way up to 1st grade Jemadar on 26th October 1894. His character is good on the whole and he is an excellent detective.

(7) No 316 Shaikh Chengisha 1st grade Jemadar, Cumbum Circle. On 1st March 1884 This man entered service as a Temporary 3rd grade Peon on Rs 6 and has by his diligence and hard work risen to the 1st grade Jemadar within within the short space of 4 years.

He has been specially deputed by me to the Cumbum Circle to improve detection and Mr. Phenius reports that he has done good work there since his arrival. His Vernacular is Telugu.

2. These men will all undergo a probation of at least 5 years before confirmation and will revert in any cases where they are not found to give satisfaction."

Resolution.

Submitted to Government with the recommendation that the Petty Officers selected by the Deputy Commissioner with the exception of No 6 Vankatappa may, with reference to G.O. dated 3rd February
