Honoured Sir

I beg to submit herewith a petition presented to me by K. Rave appa a temporary copyist of my Court to the address of his Excellency the Governor in Council praying that he may be exempted from passing the Matriculation Examination to qualify himself for appointment carrying a salary of Rs 15 or upwards.

I know the applicant from about eleven months during which time he was acting as a clerk and

Int. No. 7092/94 a Copyist in my Court. When he was a Copyist he was doing the work of a Clerk in addition to his Copyist work.

He is clever and intelligent.
He is obedient and painstaking, and I think his case is a fit one for exemption.

He has become a family man and cannot now be able to study for matriculation examination.

He remains

May it please your Excellency

The humble petition of Kondalapuri Ramayya, temporary Copyist of the District Munsiff's Court Madanapalle most respectfully sheweth:-

That his parents died when he was too young and so he was left under the care of his uncle.
(father's brother.) His said uncle was too poor to get him studied and so he (uncle) left him (petitioner) with his (uncle's) son-in-law at Bellary who was head computer in the Survey office drawing Rs 70 per mensem. He prosecuted his studies in the London Mission 1887 in which year he had applied for the Matriculation Examination. But for his misfortune he failed in that examination in General Subjects. His misfortune was also followed by the death of his brother-in-law (the said son-in-law of petitioner's uncle) who was petitioner's sole protector, in the year 1888, and thus he was thrown in a helpless condition and unable to continue his studies any further for the reasons of his uncle's poverty and of his
