26TH JULY 1895, No. 1573, JUDICIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS. JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From M. HAMMICK, Esq., I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 27th June 1895, No. 3982.

With reference to G.O., No. 573, dated 19th February 1895, Judicial Department, sanctioning 21 prosecuting inspectorships (one for each district), I have the honour to submit a list of candidates and to recommend that Government may be pleased to appoint them Public Prosecutors under Section 492, Code of Criminal Procedure, within the district and with the head-quarters specified.

2. The Superintendent of Police, Jeypore, considers that a Prosecuting Inspector is not necessary for that district at present, and I concur in this view. In Salem M.R.By. S. Subramaniya Aiyar, B.A., is employed as Prosecuting Inspector, having been appointed as such by G.O., No. 650, dated 2nd April 1892, Judicial Department. I have therefore recommended new candidates for the other nineteen districts.

3. The candidates named in the margin have not passed the Précis-Writing Test prescribed for the post of Inspector. I recommend that they may be exempted from passing this test for a period of two years, i.e., until the results of October 1896 examination are known.

I recommend this concession as the first four are graduates and the last one has passed in the Language Branch of the B.A. degree examination, and there are no better qualified persons available.
