FOR ORDERS.

Saw Mr Cole the other day & we talking about this matter. He seemed to think that he sd. do a meeting be held by the 15th & then sd. follow him & that the result sd. be that he & those who agreed with him sd. write a minute upon the whole matter & then the report of which meeting sd. be taken. I told him that, before I received (I admit) ignorance on the subject), whether report had the best opinion is in favour of what I should favour, & that I might if agreeable write to him & one or two others privately setting out the heads of my opinion who had views & fail & [illegible] at the disposal of Govt. He did not say so positively but I formed the impression that he expected & wanted this report from me & then to circulate it to the Cttee, & so do now. I told him I did not say I would & I think it will be equally fair not explicit, for he is an old man & has given some attention & his position of industrial education —

Mr Seton for opinion

The following gentlemen were originally appointed by Govt on the Committee to report on the reorganization of the School of Arts:

1. The Hon. E. Denison
2. The Hon. W. Cole
3. The Hon. W. Chambers
4. Mr R.F. Mr
5. Mr John Wood
6. Mr C.A. Phipps

7. Mr Thurston

2. Mr Dickenson gone to England, Messrs Emery & Cotton were asked to join the Committee on 7.4.95. Mr Cotton, Mr Chambers, Mr Phipps, & Mr Thurston have signified their assent to serve on the Committee; the Hon. Mr Cole hopes the second proposed Mr Duncan's name as he personally, afford to be on the Committee; Mr Emery to be asked to join if he could not usefully form part of the Committee; Mr Emery to be asked to join if he could & report work; Mr Cotton [illegible] not replied as yet, a reminder was sent to the letter a postage [illegible]

3. The Director asks that I would let him know of the gentlemen who have consented to serve, & the following days has accordingly been despatched

I agree with the above suggestion & recommend HE

Your telegram brought with them Messrs Chamberlain, Phipps & Grant to move School of Art Committee. Letter ~~and telegram~~ not replied

I also saw Mr Cowle the other day, and his reasoning is with not to move, & the reasons. I urged exactly the same arguments as the hon. Mr Atkins has done, and he agreed to withdraw his objection. Therefore before he is gazetted he should be asked to re-consider. A.D.C. for the C.S. to be sent, & he might be reminded of his promise to me, in case he should have grown cold again.
