His Excellency The Governor
Madras Presidency.
Madras.

The most humble petition of

S. Mohamed Khan Round Gumosi

Deputy Tahsildars Office Kangra Division North West of

May it please your excellency

... Your excellencies humble petitioner is a Mohamadan and the great grand son of one Ibrahim Khan who was some 90 years ago employed as the Kiladar of a fort called Kaveri
-poor (in Salem district) that was then in the hands of Tippu Sultan of Sree Ranganapatam. The sanad records &c which had been granted by former rulers and which were in the possession of the said Ibrahim Khan having been lost during the battle of Sree Rang -patam and the same great grand father of your excellencies humble petitioner having survived that battle only a very few years, your excellencies humble petitioner is not now in a position to

to produce such records which will clearly shew that poor petitioners ancestors social status was a high one.

2. Subsequent to the demise of Ibrahim Khan his son and the grand father of the humble petitioner, by name Hussain Khan alias Hussain sniah sahib was appointed Khaji of Rayakota a place in the Krishnagiri Taluk of the Salem dist.

3. The petitioner begs to bring to the notice of your excellency that one Khaji Hussain Khan the grand father of the petitioner is the same person who helped the present Collector of Madras, (see Customs sept.) J. A. LeGarde Esquire with the ancient History of Baramahal or fort on the twelve hills when that officer was as sub-collector of Salem engaged in the preparation of a manual for that district and in recognition of this service, his name has also been mentioned in the said manual.

4. Of the European officers in Government, service at present the said Collector of Madras J. A. LeGarde Esquire is the only gentleman who knows your excellency's humble petitioners grand father the said Khaji Hussain Khan sahib.

5. It is now six months since the said Khaji Hussain Khan sahib ceased to exist.

6. Though his ancestors were thus a good and well to do circumstances your excellency's humble petitioner is now in a very deplorable state of life, and it was with the greatest difficulty that he succeeded in managing to pass the middle school examination in 1890.

7. Your Excellency's humble petitioner was in 1888 appointed ^{as} second Hindustani teacher of the old Palla school in the Krishnagiri Taluk (Salem) after holding that appointment for 2 years - he was taken as an attender in the North West Collectors office at Chittoor in 1891 by J. A. LeGarde Esquire when he was Collector of this district. Your Excellency's humble petitioner continued to hold till in the year 1892 when he was transferred as Pound gunasta on Rs. 10 in the Mangundi Deputy Tahsildars office at Kuppam which post he continues to hold.

8. Your Excellency's humble petitioner is well conversant with the several languages viz English, Tamil, Telugu and Hindustani.

9 Your excellency's humble petitioner is now aged 21 and is owing to his straitened circumstances and to the rigid university rules he is not able enough to attempt at passing any of the university examinations which can qualify him to appear for the government departmental tests required for his advancement in service nor has he passed the middle school in 1st class.

10 Your excellency's humble petitioner has a very earnest desire to appear for the special test examinations for which he could not appear in his present state and he also humbly brings to your excellency's notice that several mohammandans, who were born in high families but reduced to poverty owing to the transient fluctuations of the world have been exempted by the benevolent government of Her Majesty The Queen Victoria and thus were enabled to cut a good figure in the world.

11 In these circumstances therefore your excellency's humble petitioner most respectfully and humbly prays that your excellency in Council may take into consideration all the facts above set forth as also the high social position that his ancestors occupied and his present miserable state and maybe graciously pleased to make an order exempting your excellency's humble petitioner from passing the university examinations and permitting him to appear for the government special test examinations so as to render him self qualified for promotion at least to have an aspiration for it. For this act of kindness and charity the humble petitioner ever prays for your excellency's long life and prosperity.

The petitioner begs to remain
Your most gracious Excellency's Obedient, humble and dutiful servant

S. Mohamud Khan
