6TH SEPTEMBER 1895, No. 738, EDUCATIONAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From M.R.Ry.V. KRISHNAMA CHARIAR, Rao Bahadur, Registrar of Books, to the Director of Public Instruction, dated Madras, 29th August 1895, No. 238.

I have the honour to forward for transmission to Government the printed copies of the catalogue of books and periodicals registered during the second quarter of 1895.

2. The works registered during the quarter are 219 in number, 190 of which are classed as "books" and 29 as "periodicals."

3. A redistribution of the registered publications in the order of their languages shows that 54 are in English, 1 in Latin, 41 in Tamil, 62 in Telugu, 7 in Malayalam, 11 in Kanarese, 1 in Konkani, 1 in Hindustani, 1 in (diglot-edition) Persian and 40 in Sanscrit including those published in Grandha and Nāgari characters.

4. Of the total number registered, a little over 31 per cent. are works intended for educational purposes.

5. In the column of remarks are entered as usual brief notes on the contents of most of the registered publications.

6. The printed statement herewith appended contains the extract of entries of copyright registration with regard to 92 works whose proprietorship has been registered. This is, in fact, the largest number ever registered in a single quarter on payment of the prescribed fee. The last four entries in this extract refer to works delivered for registration during the third and fourth quarters of 1894 and the first quarter of 1895, but for which copyright has only been secured during the second quarter.

1895. 20th May.	61	8vo. ..	1st ..	500	Printed.	Rs. A. P. 0 8 0		An interesting and suggestive paper throwing some light on the antiquarian literature of the Tamil land, and presenting an outline of the reli- gious history of the Tamil Sivites in which the learned writer endeavours to fix the seventh century as the age of a Sivite saint and a Tamil lyric poet and a great adversary of Jainism in Southern India, with a view to fix the relative ages of Sambandha, Sankara and Rāmā- nujā Charya, the great religious teachers of the Indian Peninsula.
30th Mar.	96	Do. ..	1st ..	4,000	Do.	0 3 0		Presents a brief analysis of the best known Purana or sacred legend of the Hindus, claiming pre-emi- nence to Vishnu, and points out the contradic- tions as to its real origin, and the claims of other Puranas and the superior claims of Christianity to consideration.
28th Feb.	54	16mo..	1st ..	300	Do.	0 8 0		Explains that Babism is not a political movement, though it was at first in conflict with the civil power, but a revolt against orthodox Islam, tending to raise women to a high level and to give liberty of thought and develop a friendly spirit in others.

January.	347	Do ..	1st ..	1,000	Do.	2 0 0	Rai Bahadur P. Anandā Chārlu, High Court Vakil, Lake Side, Egmore, Madras.	The true story of the epic of the Mahabharata presented here reads like a novel much above the ordinary run of fiction. The interest of the story is well sustained to the end, and the vivid and im- pressive manner of treatment is wholly individual, while the material is most acceptable to the general reader.

*The Director of Public Instruction.*Madras

Honble Sir,

I have the honor to forward for transmission to Government the printed copies of the Catalogue of books and periodicals registered during the Second quarter of 1895.

2. The works registered during the quarter are 219 in number, 190 of which are classed as "books" and 29 as "periodicals."

3. A redistribution of the registered publications in the order of their languages shows that 54 are in English, 1 in Latin, 41 in Tamil, 62 in Telugu, 7 in Malayalam, 11 in Kanarese, 1 in Konkani, 1 in Hindustani, 1 in (diglot. edition) Persian, and 40 in Sanskrit including those published in frandha and nagari characters.

Edl

4. Of the total number registered, a little over 31 per cent are works intended for Educational purposes.

5. In the column of remarks are entered as usual brief notes on the contents of most of the registered publications.

6. The printed statement herewith appended contains the Extract of entries of Copyright registration with regard to 92 works whose proprietorship has been registered. This is in fact the largest number ever registered in a single quarter on payment of the prescribed fee. The last four entries in this Extract refer to works delivered for registration during the third and fourth quarters of 1894 and the first quarter of 1895, but for which Copyright ~~has~~ only ^{been} secured during the second quarter.

I have the honor to be,

Hon'ble Sir,

Your most Obedtⁿ Servt.

Order: — 86th September, 1895, no 738.

ORDERED that the catalogue of books registered during the Second quarter of 1895, be published in the Fort St. George Gazette, and that copies be transmitted to the Secretary of State for India, and to the Government of India.

2. The Registrar of Books will be requested to state whether his remark against "no 54, Kalvalai Andadi" is correct.

The Director of Public Instruction.

Note. Kalvalai Andadi is a poem in praise of Vinayaka at Kalvalai, a village in Jaffna, Ceylon, composed by a Jaffna poet. The Registrar of Books evidently did not take the trouble of going through the book before he wrote his descriptive note. He has translated Kalvalai (கல்வலை) into 'Stone-built dam' !!! and from that deduces that the temple is situated on the Cauvery river, some miles to the east of Srirangam. The mistake made in the identification of the place is excusable but there is nothing in the poem to warrant the statement that it is in praise of Siva. The second stanza in the Invocation ends as follows:-

"O Elephant-faced God, please to render me lasting help in the composition of your Kalvalai Andadi. A copy of the book in question is put up for perusal.
