From

THE HONORABLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc.,

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras,

To

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIR,

I have the honour to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for the retention for a further period of two years of the Carpentry instructor in the Rajahmundry College, whose term expired on the 31st December 1894 under G. O. No. 21, Education dated 14 January 1893. The instructor is a competent man trained in the Dowlaishwaram workshop.

2. It will be seen from the enclosed list of furniture made during 1893/4 that the students evince much interest in the class. No attempt is made to teach the students carpentry as a trade. But the class is beneficial not only as a training for the hand and eye, but as a corrective to the prevailing distaste and false pride with reference to any kind of manual labour, and the continuance of it is being desirable. Mr Metcalfe whom I consulted on the subject during a recent visit to Rajahmundry reports that it is very popular. In fact admissions have to be refused for want of accommodation.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

J. S. S. S.
Director of Public Instruction.
