SURGEON-MAJOR Capt Chas Deet Balke M.B.

SUPERINTENDENT,
MADRAS LUNATIC ASYLUM.

The Secretary to the Surgeon General
writes me Good

SIR,

I have the honor to submit the following for the information and orders of the Surgeon General, two vacancies have existed in the grade of 2^d Class European Attendant at this Asylum for the past twelve months and as candidates fulfilling the conditions laid down by Govt. for admission into the Public Service had been forthcoming to fill these posts through full publicity of the fact had been given both in the Govt. Gazette and the public prints, the work has been carried on by acting men. However, and of these, one W. Doreney, who has acted in the capacity of 2^d Class European Attendant appears to me worthy of recommendation for permanent employment at the Asylum. He has served here for the past nine months and his conduct and work have been exemplary; ^{he is} 34 years of age of good physique, acquainted with the vernaculars, and of European birth. Formerly in the Army, he left it at his own request after 12 years' service in the hopes of bettering himself in civil employ, and so has no claim to pension. Though not strictly falling under the exemption relating to entertainment of Military Business, yet, I consider him most eligible as not only having been in military employ under Govt but being, in every way, fit for the post of 2nd Class European Steward for which I now strongly recommend him.

2. They therefore that the orders of Govt may be readily obtained exempting Mr W. Downey from the enforcement of the rule appertaining to military Business and his appointment sanctioned at an early date
