REPORT.

THE Managing Committee of the Madras School Book and Literature Society have much pleasure in submitting to the General Body of Members a brief sketch of the work done by the Society during the year ending 31st March 1895:

2. Before detailing the operations of the Society for the year under review, the Committee feel called upon to advert to some of the changes that have taken place during this period, in the constitution of their body. By the resignation of the office of President of the Society by the Hon. Mr. Duncan, the Committee have been deprived of the active services of one of their oldest and most experienced members. At a Meeting of the General Body held on the 12th December 1894, the members considered it their duty to record the high sense they entertained of the services rendered to the Society by Dr. Duncan, in the following resolution. "That in accepting the resignation of the Hon. Mr. Duncan, the Society place on record its appreciation of his services and tender him a hearty vote of thanks." The Rev. E. Sell, B. D., who has long been a member of the Society, and has always taken a deep interest in its affairs, was duly elected President of the Society in place of Dr. Duncan, at the same meeting.

3. In their last report the Committee intimated that Mr. G. H. Stuart and M. R. Ry. J. M. Velu Pillay had been appointed as trustees in place of Messrs. H. B. Grigg, and P. Ranganada Mudaliar (deceased), and that steps were being taken for the inclusion of the new names in the trust. The Committee have now to report that the necessary arrangements having been made, the Government Pro-notes in the custody of Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co., on account of the Society, now stand in the names of the gentlemen named in the margin.

4. It will be remembered that in July last, the General Body suggested to the Managing Committee, the under-mentioned methods of giving fuller effect to the objects for which the Society was established :—

- (1) To support and encourage certain Vernacular Journals.
- (2) To offer prizes for the production of new biographies of historical characters and other literary works.
- (3) To undertake the publication of a series of annotated Vernacular Classics.

5. The Committee had the above suggestions under consideration at their Meeting held on the 19th September 1894, and they are glad to state that steps have been taken to give effect to them.

6. In accordance with the first suggestion a sum of Rs. 150 was paid to Rao Bahadur V. Krishnamachariyar, the Editor of the Maharani, as a contribution towards the expenses of publishing that Journal during 1894—95.

7. The proposal to publish a series of annotated Vernacular Classics was referred to a Sub-Committee consisting of the gentlemen named in the margin, and the following report submitted by them is still under consideration :—

Rao Bahr. V. Krishnamachariyar.
M. R. Ry. P. Vijayaranga Mudaliar.
" C. W. Tamotharam Pillai.
" S. Rangayya Chettiar.
" J. M. Velu Pillay.

"Proceedings of the Meeting of the Sub-Committee of the Madras School Book and Literature Society held on Friday, 5th March 1895.

PRESENT :—

Rao Bahr. V. Krishnamachariyar, (in the Chair.)

M. R. Ry. C. W. Tamotharam Pillai Avl.

„ J. M. Velu Pillai Avl.

Read Extract from the Proceedings of the Committee, dated 19th September 1894, regarding the proposed publication of a series of Annotated Vernacular Classics.

I. The Sub-Committee after due consideration and inspection of some annotated editions of English Classics resolved as follows :—

- (1) That the following Tamil Poetical Works already printed and used in Colleges and Schools, be recommended as suitable for annotation for the present :

- (a) Kambaramayanam, in parts.
- (b) Villiputturar Bharatam.
- (c) Bharata Venba.

- (2) That applications be invited from such Tamil Scholars as are likely to undertake the work of annotating any of these texts, the applicant being requested to submit specimens of their annotations in print—say for :

- (a) First five Stanzas in the Balakandam of the Ramayanam ^(a) (Society's Edition.)
- (b) First five Stanzas of Sabhaparvam ^(c) (Navalar's Edition.)
- (c) First five Stanzas of Udyogaparvam.

- (3) In the case of Poetical Works (a) and (b) above, an honorarium of Rs. 20 per form of Notes printed in Demi Octavo paper be recommended as suitable remuneration for the annotator of each work, this rate including the charge for passing the Notes through the press.

- (4) In the case of Bharata Venba (c) above, the text also has to be printed, no complete edition having been as yet published; and the honorarium for editing the whole text with annotation be fixed at Rs. 10 per form.

II. Resolved that the preparation of a corresponding list of Telugu Works to be annotated be deferred to another meeting of the Sub-Committee.

(Sd.) V. KRISHNAMACHARIYAR, Chairman.

8. Communications were also received from several gentlemen offering to undertake the production of biographies and other literary works, but the Committee have yet to consider whether any of the proposed works are suitable for publication or patronage by the Society, and to decide what ought to be the nature and extent of the encouragement afforded.

9. In 1893 the Committee resolved on the preparation of an Urdu Anthology in separate parts, which might serve as appropriate text-books for the University Examinations. The above work was projected by the Committee at the instance of the Rev. E. Sell, B.D., through whose kind offices, the Committee are happy to state, they have secured the invaluable services of Nawab Imad-ul-Mulk Syed Hussain Bilgrami, B.A., Director of Public Instruction, Hyderabad. This gentleman, who is reputed to be one of the best living Arabic, Persian and Urdu Scholars in Southern India, has kindly consented to undertake the work for the Society, and a sum of Rs. 500 has been advanced to him towards the printing expenses.

It may be mentioned also that Nawab Imad-ul-Mulk Syed Hussain Bilgrami has consented to become a member of the Society.

10. Particulars of the Malayalam Translation Prize Fund are furnished below :

Mr. Pilo-Paul's Malayalam Translation of Johnson's Rasselas was completed during the year under review : but the printing of the Malayalam Prose Version of Sir Walter Scott's Lady of the Lake which has been in the Press for the past two years is not yet finished owing to frequent delays caused in the transmission of proofs to the Author.

A Story of Sakuntala in Malayalam by Mr. Pilo-Paul which was received in February last, has been forwarded to Mr. M. Krishnan, B.A., of the Presidency College, for an expression of his opinion as to the style in which it is written. The publication of the above work will be undertaken by the Society on account of the Prize Fund if it be favourably reported on.

17. The accounts of the Society for the year under report were examined, and the balance of Stock of Books, Government Pro. Notes, Publication Stores and Furniture on the 31st March, were verified by Mr. C. Hall, whose report is hereto appended.

18. The Committee cannot conclude their report without expressing their deep regret at the loss the Society has sustained by the death of Mr. P. Vijayaranga Mudaliyar, who as a member of the Committee for many years rendered much useful service. They have also to deplore the death of Mr. H. B. Grigg who, as President of the Society for ten years, always had at heart the interests of the Society and strove with characteristic zeal and energy to promote its objects.

APPENDIX A.

Audit Report on the examination of the Accounts of the Society for the official year 1894-95.

To

The Secretary,

Madras School Book & Literature Society.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. 352 of 31st July 1894, I have the honor to report, that the Stock of Books, Publication Stores and Furniture on hand on 31st March 1895 were examined by me and the accounts of the Society for the year 1894-95 have been duly audited.

2. Stock taking commenced on Monday 1st April, and as the office was opened at 7 A. M. each day, the work was completed by the 3rd of the month. I have much pleasure in stating that as every thing was properly arranged, the check was facilitated and I found all in order. The accounts were sent to me gradually from 26th April.

3. The Monthly Abstracts of Sales from June to December 1894 and February 1895 were fairly maintained, but the daily entries in those for January and March 1895, it appears to me, might have been entered more carefully. The monthly Sales Account from which the preceding is prepared and the monthly Stock Accounts were carefully written up. All the figures appertaining to Sales in the Sales Accounts were satisfactorily traced, in the first place in the Abstracts of Sales and subsequently in the Stock Accounts.

4. Remittances made to Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co., as shewn in the Sales Accounts and remittance chalang were duly verified with the firm's Pass Book.

5. The Monthly Cash and Personal Accounts, the half yearly accounts* rendered to parties who have left books for sale at the Society's Depot, and the Annual Statements as under have been examined by me.

* The Account of Mr. M. H. Subbarayadu, Nellore, excepted.

1. Stock Account.
2. Cash Receipts and Payments, (A and B.)
3. Petty Cash.
4. Publication Stores.
5. Publication Account.
6. Personal Account.
7. Commission Account.
8. Stock Valuation Account.

6. To facilitate the check of the Stock Valuation Account I would suggest that, in the Book maintained to show stock received, which now gives the number and date of the cheque, the actual payment for each consignment be also inserted.

7. The Receipts and Charges of the year, compared with those of the previous year are given below :—

		1894-95.		1893-94.
		RS.	A. P.	RS.	A. P.

		15,187	4 7	15,969	14 8
Net Gain...		2,410	7 11	...	...
Loss...		...	...	475	7 4

8. The result of the transactions of the year is a gain.

This arises chiefly in the receipt of anticipation interest on the Conversion of Government 4 % paper to 3½ % per annum; to the amount allowed on sale of Books being less than in 1893-94 and to the Gain in Stock Valuation (a) minus Value of Books written off (b) resulting in a larger amount of gain in the year under report as compared with the figures of the preceding year.

9. The employés of the Society who give Security receive interest at the expense of the Society. Now that Government Pro. Notes yield only 3½ % per annum, it might be considered whether this expense might be saved by lodging the Security money in Fixed Deposit with the Bankers, interest thereon being made over to the depositors, instead of merging the Security money with the Funds of the Society.

10. The Assets and Liabilities of the Society are given hereunder:—

11. The balance of the first five Accounts have been duly verified and I have satisfied myself that the balances of the remaining five have been correctly arrived at.

12. The Government Promissory Notes belonging to the Society were inspected by me at the Office of Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co., as per enclosed list. They stand in the names of Messrs. G. H. Stuart, M. A., V. Krishnamachariyar and J. M. Velu Pillay.

13. Explanations were readily furnished by the Manager M. R. Ry. P. K. Narayanaswami Sastri to references made by me in the course of the audit. On the whole, I consider the Accounts have been kept correctly.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

(Sd.) C. HALL,
Auditor.
