OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF

From

THE HONORABLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc.,

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras,

To

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIR,

role
In February 1894, Mr. S. Swaminatha Aiyar, Sub Assistant Inspector of Schools, ~~Penukonda~~ Penukonda Range, was granted privilege leave for one month and Mr. P. Ramanujachari, Headmaster, Government Training School, Bellary, was appointed to act for him. While acting in this range, Mr. Ramanujachari, was directed to proceed to the Ongole range to afford temporary relief to the Sub Assistant of that range in the examination of schools for grant. He accordingly proceeded to Ongole and went on with his special work till the 9th March succeeding, when he was relieved by the

the permanent incumbent of the Pennukonda range. This officer's privilege leave had expired on the 3rd idem and he was present at Pennukonda in time to relieve the acting officer on the 4th. But the latter was not at Headquarters as he was then doing special duty in the Ongole range and he was able to deliver charge to Mrky S. Swaminatha Aiyar only on the afternoon of the 9th March 1894.

2. Mrky Ramanujachari, just before he left for Ongole, had written both to the Inspector and to the permanent incumbent for instructions as to when and where he would be relieved. The permanent officer's address during the period of his absence not having been known, it was not possible for the Inspector to issue any definite orders to Mrky Ramanujachari. He had therefore to continue in charge of the range for six days after the acting period was over although the relieving officer was at at headquarters in time. Mrky S. Swaminatha Aiyar, although he formally took charge only on the 10th, must be considered to have taken charge on the 4th as he was at headquarters on that day prepared to take charge. There is, however, some difficulty as to how the six days during which Mrky Ramanujachari was in charge of the range should be treated. It is clear that neither of the officers is in any way to blame in the matter. Mrky S. Swaminatha Aiyar was at headquarters on the due date and Mrky Ramanujachari continued in charge of the range as he thought that, by leaving the Ongole range in time to be at Pennukonda on the 4th March the special duty on which he had been deputed to that range would suffer. His continuance in the range was therefore in the interests of the public service. There are only two ways out of the difficulty - either Mrky S. Swaminatha Aiyar's privilege leave should be extended by six days or Mrky Ramanujachari should be be considered as on transit to his permanent appointment from the 4th to 18th March 1894, the date on which he actually entered on his duties at Bellary. The former course will entail a hardship on Mr R. S. Swaminatha Aiyar, as by ^{so} doing, he will have to refund, under Article 294 of the Civil Service Regulations, a portion of the leave allowance already drawn by him, the pay of his appointment being less than Rs 100. The latter is, therefore, the only reasonable alternative, and I beg to request the sanction of Government thereto, which will enable Mr R. Ramanujachari to draw pay for the period in question as Headmaster, Government Training School, Bellary, without a break in his service. The Accountant General also prefers this course.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant
