There is some ground apparently for consideration in this case

Yes, there is a sufficient reason for dispensing with the formal test in the case of men who have served as long as will. They may get Rs 100

OFFICE NOTE No. 3359 A

To

W.

+ G.O. dated 20 April 1924,
No. 261 202

Under G.O. No. III 5 W. dated 4th May 1894 the pay of two clerks in my office is restricted to Rs. 75 a month as they have not passed the Precis-writing test; but in the belief that His Excellency the Governor in Council is always ready to relax a rule which inflicts undeserved hardship on individuals, provided such relaxation does not diminish the efficiency of the services, I venture to submit to his most favourable consideration the cases of Mr. E. A. deMonte and T. Mahomed Yacoob Sahib.

Mr. E. A. deMonte.

2. This clerk entered this office in October 1873. His duties are responsible, and consist of auditing salary, travelling allowance, and contingent bills, and claims to pension, the preparation of last pay certificates of officers proceeding on furlough, etc.; but in none of these is there any occasion or opportunity for the use of precis-writing. He is like other members of the Establishment Audit Branch^{is} a specialist, and it is to the interests of the State that he, with them, should spend the whole of his service in that branch.

3. Mr. deMonte has rendered 22 years service and performed his duties most satisfactorily; and in his application to me he represents that he is "the son of the late Mr. Peter deMonte, a very old & faithful servant of Government", a fact which may commend itself to Government as an additional reason for granting his prayer.

T. Mahomed Yacoob Sahib.

4. This clerk is employed as Asst. Recordkeeper and Asst. Superintendent of the Routine Branch, neither of which duties requires the writing of a précis. He has rendered 20 years zealous and efficient service; and during the past three years, while carrying on the duties of Record-keeper and Superintendent of the Routine Branch^{has}, acquired such an intimate knowledge of those duties and the disposition of the records of the office that he is at present the man best fitted to succeed the Record-keeper and Superintendent of the Routine Branch.

5. As already stated, precis-writing is not required in connection with the duties of either clerk; and if long, faithful, and efficient service in special work may be advanced in favour of exemption from a rule which operates harshly on men who have rendered such service, I would earnestly solicit that these two clerks may be permitted to be advanced to Rs. 100 a month, which is the highest salary to which either can rise in their respective branches, on the clerical establishment of this office.
