Simla, the 14th July 1895.

Sir,

With reference to the Despatch from the Madras Government to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India No. 3 (Educational), dated the 7th June 1895, with which was forwarded the special report called for in Lord Cross' Despatch No. 3 Public (Educational), dated the 16th April 1891, showing the position and prospects of the Madras Law College on the 31st December 1894, I am directed to observe that in Home Department letter No. 123 of the 27th May 1891, it was requested that this report should be transmitted through the Government of India.

2. I am at the same time to inquire whether the receipts and disbursements of the College quoted in paragraph (3) of the Principal's letter No. 8, dated the 20th December 1894, have been verified by the Accountant-General.

February 75

3. I am to add that, on receipt of a reply to this letter, the Governor General in Council proposes to address the Secretary of State on the subject supporting the recommendation of the Government of Madras, but the Government of India are of opinion that two years before the extended period of five years comes to an end the Government of Madras should consider, and report through the Government of India for the orders of the Secretary of State, what arrangements should be made for the future, and that it must be understood that Mr. Nelson will not,

if

if reengaged on the expiry of the five years for which his existing engagement lasts, acquire any claim to count his service towards pension.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. P. Hewitt.

SIR,

With reference to Acting Under Secretary Mr. Lionel Davidson's Memorandum No. 1870 dated the 10th August 1895, I have the honour to forward a statement shewing the receipts and charges of the Law College from 1882-83 to 1893-94 as recorded in my books and to state that the receipts for all the years except 1882-83, 1885-86, 1892-93 and 1893-94 and the charges from 1891-92 to 1893-94 agree with my books. The differences under receipts are trifling and those under charges are due to contingencies of the Law College having been classified ~~separately~~ with those of the Arts College in my books from 1882-83 to 1890-91.

Submitted that the Govt. of India may be informed accordingly

In para 3 of India's letter it is stated that on receipt of a reply to that letter the Govt. of I. will address the S & S. supporting the recommendation of the Govt. of Madras; that two years before the extended period of five years comes to an end the Govt. of Madras should consider & report thro' the Govt. of I. for the orders of the S. & S. what arrangements should be made for the future & that it must be understood that Mr. Nelson will not, if re-engaged on the expiry of the five years for which his existing engagement lasts, acquire any claim to count his service towards pension.

In eno 983, the S & S. has sanctioned the proposal to maintain the Law College on its present footing as a Govt. institution for a further period of five years and this may be intimated to the Govt. of I. with ref to para 3 of the letter in eno 911. Eno 911 may be communicated to the S. & S. and his attention drawn to para 3.

3. With reference to para 2 of Mr. Hewitt's letter enquiring whether the receipts and disbursements of the College as quoted in para 3 of the Principal's letter 3. 27th Feby. 1895, Nos 13 have been verified by the Accountant-General, I am to state that the A. G. reports that the figures given by the Principal are substantially correct, the differences under receipts being trifling and those under charges due to the contingencies of the Law College having been classified with those of the Arts college during the period 1882-

91. The appendix to this letter shows the receipts and expenditure of the Law College during 1882-94.

4. I am therefore to forward to the Governor-General in Council with a copy of the Despatch received from the Secy. of State expressing his approval approval of the proposal to maintain the College on its present footing for a further period of five years.
