Dated 10 October 1895.

SUBJECT.

Submitting names of certain Head Constables for temporary exemption from passing the Precis Writing Test till the results of the examinations to be held in October 1895 are known.

For orders

If there are properly qualified men in the dept then it will be doing an injustice to them to exempt these two Head Constables from the Precis Writing Test; while, if there are no properly qualified men, the I. G. can appoint these men under S.O.

no 394 Ed D 10th May '95. That order however applies only to acting appointments & apparently the I.G. wishes to make these two men permanent Inspectors, liable to reduction however if they fail to pass the tests by October 1897. The sanction of Govt seems therefore necessary, & might perhaps be accorded "on the understanding that properly qualified men are not available".

SIR,

Enclosures. 3.

With reference to paragraph 2 of G.O. dated 25 January 1895, No. 40 Educational, I have the honor to submit the names of Head Constables V. Duraswami Mudali of South Arcot and C. Gopaliah of Salem for temporary exemption from passing the Pre-Examination Test till the results of the Examination to be held in October 1897 are known.

2. Head Constable V. Duraswami Mudali has passed the Criminal Lower and Departmental tests and has been acting as Inspector continuously from 1st September 1894. He is reported on well by the Superintendent of Police, South Arcot, by whom he has been awarded good service entries on several occasions for good detection.

Head Constable C. Gopaliah has been doing work satisfactorily as an Acting School and Court Assistant for over two years. The Superintendent of Police, Salem, and the Deputy Inspector General consider him fully qualified for a School and Court Inspector's post.

3. Owing to the appointments of Prosecuting Inspectors one for each District recently sanctioned the places of several ordinary Inspectors became vacant they having been selected for the Prosecuting Inspectors' appointments. I propose to fill up two of these vacancies by the appointment of the two Head Constables above named and I therefore solicit that the temporary exemption from passing the Precis Writing test asked for on their behalf may be sanctioned.

Enclose the records of their services.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obed^t. Serv^t.
