READ the following:-

To His Excellency the Governor in Council, Madras.

Through the Collector of Coimbatore.

The humble petition of S. Sundaramiah, Channal Gummastali, Salya-mangalam Taluk, Coimbatore District. most respectfully sheweth.

That your Excellency's humble petitioner has been serving in the Revenue Department for nearly a period of 4 years. He was entertained as Special Loan Clerk on salary of Rs. 15 per mensem in January 1892 in which he continued till 31st March 1894 when the Special Clerk's post was was abolished. In the meantime he was appointed as permanent channel gunastan on Rs. 7 which he now holds. He still continues to do the Loan work.

Your Excellency's humble petitioners claims were over looked on several occasions his appointment as special Loan clerk standing in the way. Till late the petitioner was fully expecting to get a permanent appointment on Rs. 15 which hope has been blasted up by the recent public service notification, he being only a middle school 1st class candidate.

During his tenure as Loan clerk your Excellency's humble petitioner has worked hard to the entire satisfaction of his superiors.

The petitioner's present appointment is one in the temporary line carrying a poor salary of Rs. 7 with which one can hardly maintain himself and his family.

In consideration of the long service and of his present condition under the recent rulings, that he can never rise into the superior service of

of the Department your Excellency's humble petitioner begs to request that your Excellency will be pleased to exempt him from the operation of the public service notification and thus protect him.

For which act of kindness and charity, your Excellency's humble petitioner shall in duty bound ever pray.

Your Excellency's humble petitioner
begs to remain
your Excellency's most humble & obedient servant

130/ S. Sandramani.

Submitted through the Deputy Collector, Coimbatore Division.

The applicant having passed middle school examination in the first class in 1886 was appointed as temporary Loan Clerk on Rs. 15 in January 1892 and continued to be as such till 31st March 1894 when the services of a Special

Loan clerk was dispensed with. In the meanwhile, however, in the month of December last, he was also confirmed as permanent channel gunastah of the Taluk on Rs. 7 a month.

The applicant was entrusted all along with loan work which has also been very heavy and responsible. He has evinced striking interest, zeal and industry in the discharge of the work and worked not only to my entire satisfaction but also to the satisfaction of my predecessor Mr. P. S. Vasudeva Rao who has indicated it in his strong recommendations in one or two occasions for the gift of a permanent appointment to him. His case has been a peculiarly hard one, and it would be indeed a matter of pity that this hardworking and intelligent man should be deprived of the benefit of Government service by the recent rulings, after a service of nearly 4 years.

I beg therefore to request that the Collector may be addressed towards addressing addressing the higher authorities on the subject and procuring him the boon of exemption he prays for.

FOR ORDERS.

There are many who are similarly circumstanced. The pet. may be informed that his case will be considered if and when an appointment on Rs 15 is offered to him?
Submitted that there is no reason to do this. Coimbatore is very different from Cuddalore & there is nothing
special about this man's case.
He is only a middle school first class man & must or should have been aware as far back as 1889
that the odds were against his getting a Rs. 15 appointment. The notification of June 1891 was another warning to him & it is sheer nonsense to talk of the last notification as blasting his prospects.
His prospects were practically nil before
that was issued.

The exemption cannot
be granted
