COMMISSIONER FOR

GOVERNMENT EXAMINATIONS,

Madras,

To

THE HON'BLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY

TO GOVERNMENT,

Fort St. George.

SIR,

In G.O. of the 15th May 1893, No 323, Educ.
I was directed to reprint in larger type the pamphlet containing the Rules relating to the Unconscripted Civil Service Examinations when the revision of the Public Service Notification and of the Special Test rules had been completed and the revised drafts had received approval of Government.

In carrying out these orders of Government it occurred to me that the Rules and Notifications relating to the various Government Examinations and the Control of the Commissioner might, with be published in the form of a University

Rules and Notifications appear Any error that may be found in the Calendar will be corrected in the Calendar for 1895-96, which I propose to bring out in June or July.

As much uncertainty appears to be felt in regard to the nature of the Examination rules and the extent to which they operate, it might, perhaps, be advisable to furnish the Head of every office with a copy of the Calendar. If this suggestion is approved, it will be necessary to authorize the Superintendent of the Government Press to strike off a sufficient number of copies, for distribution among the various offices and also, for sale to the public.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

Order of 4 Feb. 95, No. 8 SA 2/2

The pamphlet is a useful handy one but it is observed that the pages shown in the table of contents are given incorrectly quoted & it is in future issues. The date up to which the notifications should be published is reversed. Generally, it is presumed, they will be corrected up to the 31st March preceding the year for which the Calendar is issued. Under present rules the Public Service & Special Test notices have to be republished correct up to the 31st Dec. in January of each year. As, however, the Calendar is for the office year, it will be more convenient if the publication of these notices takes place in April, corrections up to the end of March being noted. 3. As the Public Service & Special Test notices are re-published annually in the Gazette, it does not seem necessary to supply every officer with this pamphlet. It will suffice if Heads of Departments are supplied with it & a certain number of copies (as to which the Comr. will communicate with the Supt. of the Govt. Press) are kept for sale to the public. 4. Two copies of the Calendar will be forwarded to the Secy. of the Govt. Press.
