for his maintenance and with this pension Memorialist came down to Nellore to his father Syed Abdul Khadar Salih son of late Syed Musthafa ali Khan Salih brother of Syed Abbas ali Khan Salih Bahadur late Jagirdar of Volayagiri and at his death in the year 1842 your Memorialist's father was only 7 year old and there was no other male member in the family to look after the family affairs and consequently the jodi for that year on the said two villages not having been paid the Government attached the said villages that year and took the jodi and this continued for 7 years on account of Circumstances shown in the early part of this para when your humble Memorialist's father then of 14 years age, applied to the British Government for his maintenance. Thereupon the Government taking possession of the said two villages, granted a state pension of Rs 40 to his grand mother and father. After the death of the Memorialist's grandmother, his father is still getting cash Rs 10 per mensem for his share from the Nellore Treasury and the rest was resumed by Government after the death of the Memorialist's grand mother.

3 The state pension of the Memorialist's and that of his father's Rs 10 being quite insufficient for such a family jewels and other innumerable property and pulled on their livelihood for a time and having incurred great many debts, your Excellency's Memorialist had to sell his pension of Rs 6 to Government owing to the troubles given to him by his creditors on account of his debts for chewing tobacco. The whole family has to lies upon Rs 10 (Memorialist's father's pension) Having undergone many a mortification your Excellency place of an attendant in the Amalur Taluk Board office as your Excellency's Memorialist has not passed and cannot pass any Government Examination to qualify himself for a better place though your Excellency's Memorialist knows English Telugu and Persian to read and write well.

4 your Excellency's Memorialist is of 21 years
