How orders

as to whether the concession recommended by the Agent may be granted.
It seems a hard case. The concession to retired of the Cedra Oils & N. Circars who are not R.A.s. referred to in No 2. to Art. 4 of the Spec. Pub Notif. Expires on Jan. 1st 1896. & therefore will not help him.

This seems a fitting case for allowing to appear next year but not the year after 13/11/95

He may be allowed to appear for the exam.

To

Le. C. Miller, Esquire, Ag Collector and Agent to the Government
Vizagapatam District

Most Honored Sir,

In obedience to your order dated 11th September 1895 declining to grant my application for privilege leave to enable me to study for the Special Test Criminal Higher Grade to be held in the last week of this month I beg to represent the following circumstances for your kind and favorable consideration.

At the time of my applying for privilege leave I was not unaware of the fact that inconvenience would be caused to the Estate business if I was to be absent from my work at this time, especially as the Tanjore Estate is about to be handed over to the Minor Rajah. But as Government has ordered that the Criminal Tests shall not hereafter be open to persons other than F. A. and as I am not an

H. A. this is the last chance allowed me to appear for the Criminal Test Higher Grade and I therefore solicited the leave which is highly necessary to ensure my success.

Your honor is aware that Estate work is very heavy and important. As observed by one of your predecessors in office it has grown to immense dimensions and is daily growing still and it is so extensive and so important that often a single paper requires long and serious consideration and takes up a very great deal of time with its numerous and often complicated suits. Indeed it is so extensive and important that it takes up a great deal of time even out of office hours so that while attending to it I find it utterly impossible to pass the test which requires a hard and careful study.

I have been transferred from the Revenue Department (where I hold the Translator's appointment on Rs 70 permanently) to the Estate Department in which I have been working as Head clerk for three years during which period I have not been able to find time to study and appear for the Criminal Higher Test though in each of these years I applied for it. It was for this purpose that I resumed the privilege leave earned after a hard work of three years. Had I applied for leave on loss of pay it would still have left the Department without a competent substitute acquainted with the affairs of the Mysore Estate while it would have entailed on me loss of the privilege leave already earned, of my service during the period of leave and perhaps of my claims to six months leave on half pay and to two years furlough to which I am now entitled by my long service of 21 years

I have passed the undermentioned Special tests.

1. Translation (Lower)
2. Precis Writing (Higher)
3. Revenue (Higher)

and all these will be of no use to me unless I complete the test by passing the Criminal Higher Grade, as otherwise my prospects of promotion in the Department will be permanently injured.

I beg to bring to your notice that in the letter of the Commissioner of Government Examinations embodied in G.O. No 571 dated 19th July 1895 which restricts the Special Tests to persons possessing University Certificates it is suggested that the rule could always be relaxed on the recommendation of the Head of the Department to which the candidate belonged.

I understand also that several clerks in the Ganjam Collectorate who had applied for the Revenue Higher Grade in 1889 - the last chance allowed to men other than H. As to appear for it - but whose applications for leave were rejected owing to the exigencies of the Public Service on account of the visit of famine to that district in that year, were on the recommendation of the collector allowed another year's time to appear for the examination.

In conclusion I pray that your honor will pity my hard case and recommend it to Government in view to my being admitted to the Criminal (Higher Grade) test in 1896 and 1897.

I beg to remain &c

VIZAGAPATAM GOVERNOR'S AGENT'S OFFICE.

Dated 26th October

1895.

From

L. C. Miller Esq.
Ag. Agent to the Governor,
Vizagapatam District.

To

THE HONORABLE MR. J. F. Price
CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, DEPARTMENT,
MADRAS.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit for the favorable consideration of Government copy of a petition presented to me by Mr. R. Ry Chendurthi Janakiramayya Naidu, Estates Head clerk of my Office.
The facts represented by him are true.
I was unable to grant him leave for the purpose of his studying for the Criminal Test, Higher grade, to be held in the last week of this month as I could not spare his services at this time.
2. The work of the Estates Department is very heavy and the Head clerk is entrusted with important work including that connected with the Jaypore Estate which, as the Government is aware, is to be handed over to the Rajah at the end of next month. Janakiramayya Naidu is well acquainted with his work and does it satisfactorily and just now there is no one who could take his place without injury to the work, except the Manager whose hands are already full.

3. I therefore declined to grant the Head Clerk leave but his prospects in the Department will be permanently injured as, owing to his not having passed the F. A. Examination which is prescribed as a qualification for admission to the Criminal tests from next year, he cannot in future appear for the Criminal Test, Higher Grade, which he has yet to pass to complete the test without which he will not be eligible for promotion which he otherwise deserves. He is intelligent and although he has not passed the First Examination in Arts is not inferior to an F. A. - a fact borne out by his satisfactory discharge of important duties which require good abilities and a good knowledge of English.

4. Estate service is not as attractive as Government service, and it is desirable to show some concession to deserving Government officials whose services have been lent to it.

5. Under these circumstances I recommend that he may be allowed to appear for the Criminal Test, Higher Grade next year, which he is debarred from doing by the rules

owing to his not having passed the F.A. examination. He has already passed the following Special Tests:
(1). Translation Test, Lower grade (2). Precis Writing, Higher grade and (3). Revenue Higher grade and has a service of 21 years on this date.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
L. S. S. S.
