EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

LETTER—to

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

MY LORD,

In continuation of our Educational despatches, Nos. 5 and 6, dated 24th June and 19th July 1895, respectively, on the subject of holding the LL.B. Examination of the London University in January next at Madras, we have the honour to state that we have received an application from another candidate for permission to appear for the LL.B. Examination in January next and to request that your Lordship will be pleased to communicate the fact to the authorities of the University. The name of the candidate is D. N. Bahadurji. He informs us that he is appearing for the examination for the second time, having been rejected in January last, and has accordingly deposited, for credit to the London University, the equivalent of two pounds and ten shillings sterling, which is the fee prescribed.

We have the honour to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble servants,

OUTGAMING,
16 September 1895.
