ENCLOSURE.

Subject.

Requesting sanction for an increase in the number of lectures in Medical Jurisprudence delivered to the Pleadership class

Law College, Madras

12th August 1895

No. 45

From

The Principal

To

The Director of Public Instruction Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Sanction may be obtained for an increase in the number of Lectures in Medical Jurisprudence at present delivered to the Pleaders class. That number is at present 15, for the delivery of which the Lecturer (Dr. Rangappa) draws an honorarium of Rs 300. He informs me that he finds it quite impossible to treat the Subject properly in 15 Lectures, especially as the Subject is one of peculiar difficulty to non-medical Students. The Course prescribed by the University for both the ~~Medical~~ degrees Consists

Consists of 30 lectures in Medical Jurisprudence, and I think our course might well be raised to 25. This would involve an increased expenditure of Rs 200 per annum, the sanctioned remuneration being at the rate of Rs 20 a lecture.

I have the honour to be,

Sir

Your most obedient servant

From

THE HONORABLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc.,

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras,

To

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit for favourable consideration, the enclosed Copy of a letter from the Principal, Law College, No. 45 dated 12th August last, pointing out the necessity of an increase in the number of lectures in Medical Jurisprudence delivered to the Pleaders class. Under Government order No. 146 Financial, dated 8th February 1893, the Lecturer draws an honorarium of Rs 300. The present proposal involves an increased expenditure of Rs 200 per annum, which has been provided for for in the Budget estimate for 1896-97.

2. The College Council is unanimously of opinion that the additional instruction is indispensable. The extra charge during the current year may be met from the increased fee-receipts

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

C. No. 1250 of 95

FOR ORDERS.

I have as Rs 300 was given for a course of 15 lectures, Rs 500 and Rs given for a course of 25 lectures.

In this case, the Director seeks the sanction of Govt for raising the honorarium paid to the Lecturer in Medical Jurisprudence at the Law College from Rs 300 to Rs 500. It is reported by Mr. Nelson that Mr. R. R. Rangappa delivers at present only 15 lectures, that he finds it difficult to treat the subject properly within those lectures and that it is therefore proposed to increase the number of lectures to 25. Mr. Nelson further states that the remuneration sanctioned for one lecture is Rs 20; but this statement is incorrect. Rs 300 was sanctioned for the whole course of lectures but the number of lectures to be delivered was not specified. Please see G.O. no 26 Ed. dated 17th January 93 & the Director's letter printed in G.O. no 146 Fin. & 8th Feb. 93 - under cover of G.O. no 153 Ed. & 27th Feb. 93.

Rangappa's knowledge of the subject must be at second hand and his lectures cannot therefore be of much value.

Rs. 20 per lecture appears therefore to be too much.

The Lecturers in Geology, Animal Physiology & Botany at the Presidency College receive a honorarium of Rs 700 for a course of 50 lectures; the rate per lecture is thus only Rs 14. And for this honorarium the Govt was able to secure the services of Dr. Warth.

Rangappa is not a specialist of Dr. Warth's stamp and his services should be available for a less sum. Rs. 20 a lecture.
