the honour with reference to para 2 to

2. Very few boys have matriculated during the last 2 or 3 years, those who are passed the examination, studying for higher higher tests. There is in consequence a great difficulty in getting passed candidates even in the Godavari and Vizagapatnam Districts, the paucity being felt more in the Chakrapur Sub Division of which the Ganga and Manikpattur circles are very unhealthy.

Any passed candidates who seek employment in this Department are men who have been tried and found incapable elsewhere. Paradhi one of the 5 candidates exempted from the Examination rules as per G.O.

The Chief Secretary to Government,

For orders

With ref. to L.O. no 94. D.
3rd Feb. 94. The Bd. requests that First Grade Duffadar Jagaraj Singh may be exempted from Exam. rules for employment as a Sub. Inspector and that 1st Grade Duffadar Jagga Rao & attender Chelapati Rao may be exempted for employment as clerks.

In the G.O. quoted permission was given to the Bd. only to bring forward the names of deserving Petty Officers for exemption from the Exam. rules in view to their appointment as Sub. Inspectors as Govt were of opinion that duties of Sub. Inspectors do not require much education but on the other hand only a good physique.

Two men were however excepted for service as clerks in G.O. $\frac{689.22}{4.875}$. The difficulty complained of is probably real, but the cases may be made special ones so that the Salt Dept. may continue to do its very best to get poorer men.

Winnings

The expense for employ^{ment} in the Salt & Alkali Dept. may be allowed
