To

The Honorable, the Chief Secretary to Govt., through
The Chief Assistant.

Honored Sir,

At the recommendation of the Tamil Translator to Govt. I have lately been entertained in your honor's Office as Ag Translator. That I have been doing my duties satisfactorily, may be evident from the Reports of my progress which I have submitted to the Chief Assistant.

I learn that the Educational Rules do not allow me to remain in my temporary situation unless I pass the Precis Writing Test. With reference to this, I respectfully beg to submit that I graduated only last year and had no idea of entering the Service of Govt. till it has become too late to apply for any special Tests. I beg to add that this year I intend applying for - and hope to get success - fully through - the Precis Writing, among other Tests.

Under these circumstances I request that your honor will be so kind as to grant me a temporary exception from the operation of the Educational Rules referred to above.

I beg to remain,

Honored Sir,

From St George. } Your honor's most obedient servant.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th inst. in relation to the examination for the Precious Metal Test held last October and that from the results now published I learn that I have not succeeded in passing the examination. I did fairly well at the examination & I cannot therefore account for the failure. I venture to request that you will be pleased to exempt me from passing the Precious Metal Test till the results of that examination be held in October next are known. The reason for my request is that under the present examination rules I cannot even act on Rs 60 & upwards without passing the test. & that as I now get Rs 50 I may have to miss many chances of promotion before next year.

FOR ORDERS.

Prior to the issue of the revised Public Service Notification of 1894, clerks drawing K80 per annum & upwards were required to pass the Precis Writing Test.

For reasons indicated on page 12 of the note for Orders in G.O. of 8 Nov 1893, No. 818, Enc, & pages 23-29 of the note for Orders in G.O. of 2 Feb 1894, No. 67, Enc, it was decided to require a pass at this Test from all ministerial officers drawing K60 & upwards.

2. C. No. 154 is from the Acting Tamil Translator in the Govt. Office. He failed to pass the Test in Oct. last & prays for a temporary Exemption. The Chief Asst supports his prayer & for the reasons given by him it is subm. that the man may be exempted from the rule until the results of the next Precis Writing Exam. are known.

He did not appear for it.

3. C. No. 157 is from one of my clerks who has also failed to pass. He now draws R 55 p.m. & should any chance of promotion (R 60 & upwards) occur he will not be able to take advantage of it unless he is specially exempted. The Chief Asst. does not support the prayer & there are no special circumstances about the case to justify a relaxation of the rules. Some of the results of the last Precis Writing Test were rather surprising but, as the rule has been made, it must, it is submitted, be adhered to in the Govt. office as elsewhere.
