DISTRICT SESSIONS COURT
28 JAN 75
1875

To, W. G. Underwood Esquire
District Judge,
Cuddalore.

Most honoured Sir, I humbly beg to represent that I am the Process Writer of your honours Court on Rs 12 per month.

My service in the department is about 10 years, and during the period, I have acted for clerk in the Regular establishment occasionally in all for about 5 years on Rs 15 per month & I now continue to act on Rs 15.

In the late revision of the Process Service Establishment I was also offered a post permanently of Rs 15 per month at Madanapalli but owing to my ill health I could not accept the appointment.

When the District Court was invested with small Cause powers I was the only clerk that did the small Cause business during the 8 years, and I continued to be an acting clerk in the Regular establishment in the whole of that period.

I studied up to Matriculation standard, appeared for the examination in 1875, and though I could not pass the examination for want of some marks in Physical Science which was then newly introduced, I have got sufficient knowledge in English and my duty as small Cause clerk was wholly in English; and I still continue to do work in Regular establishment as a member of Process Service establishment.
