14.2 The humble petition of Arinkunru Krishnaswami aiyar B.A., Chetty St, Walajana,

Most humbly and respectfully sheweth, i That the petitioner's name on the recommendation of Colonel Hilton, retired assistant Inspector General of Police, and of Mr. Agar, District Superintendent of Police, was registered two years ago, as a candidate qualified for a Police Inspector's post, ii That the petitioner was not able to go up for the Precis test examination in 1894, owing to a violent attack of a very bad fever during the time of the examination, under SO 955

19-12-90
25-
7/11
iii That his age will bar him next year from entering Government Service, iv That he is a second class graduate thoroughly conversant with Telugu and Tamil, and that he passed the Criminal Higher examination in 1890,

Your petitioner, therefore, most humbly prays that he may be exempted, under the above circumstances, for one year only, from passing the Precis test examination required to qualify him for a Police Inspector's post,

The petitioner humbly begs to state that the petition first sent by him was a duplicate without a signature, intended to be retained by him, and that it was by mistake and carelessness, enveloped and and sent by his cousin who was entrusted with writing the address and posting it carefully; He, therefore, requests to be excused for not having taken proper care to see whether the right copy was despatched,

And your petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray etc.

A. Krishnaaswami Aiyar
