The Executive Engineer

18 JAN 95

Through the Ancient Superintendent
The Officer in Charge Head Quarter
Sub Division Nistua.

The humble representation of Mr. Venkata Sukharayudu Asst. Ancient Clerk in the Ancient Office Nistua Northern Division.

I beg to report that I have been attached to the S. P. W. Department since 1873. I got a permanent posting in 1883 and ever since I have been working as Assistant Ancient Clerk in Bengal at a salary of Rupees 15.0.0.

During this period of my service up to this date I have been working to the entire satisfaction of my immediate superiors.

I have now come to understand that the Boat Clerk's post in the Boat Dept's Office on Rs 15 to 20 grade has recently fallen vacant.

As I have been faithfully working in the Department for such a long time satisfying my superiors in the discharge of my work I now request your honour to offer me the post as I feel confident that I can ably fill up the vacancy so that I may give entire satisfaction to my superior.

There is a large family to be maintained out of my poor salary of Rs 15 which is hardly sufficient.

I therefore humbly appeal to your honours mercy to take my pitiable case into consideration and offer me the vacancy getting an exemption to hold the post as I am an unpassed candidate on the ground that I have been working in the Department for such long period (about 20 years) ~~and salary~~

Copy of the testimonial given me by the late Amicus Superintendent Mr. P. Venkata Subbiah Setti, is enclosed for your honor's perusal.

I beg to remain

Sir

Your most obedient servant,

P. Venkata Subbarayudu

Assistant Amicus Clerk.
