To

His Excellency,

THE RIGHT HONORABLE BEILBY,

BARON WENLOCK, G.C.I.E.,

GOVERNOR OF MADRAS.

Through the Dy. Collector of Madras.

The humble petition of M. RAMANJULU NAIDU, Gumastah in the Taluk Department of the Madras Dy. Collector's Office.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH,

1. That Your Excellency's humble Petitioner was entertained in the Government service on the 15th March 1876, as a Gumastah in the Abkari Department on Rs. 15, and after having remained in it till January 1879, he was promoted to the post of Quit-rent Conicopillay in the Taluk Department on a pay of Rs. 21 per mensem, in which post he continued till July 1881, when owing to ill-health, he was allowed to change places with a Gumastah on Rs. 15, which post he has ever since been holding. Thus, the Petitioner's total service amounts to more than 18 years. He has been discharging his duties to the entire satisfaction of all his superiors, but has nevertheless had no promotion in consequence of his not having passed any examination. Petitioner appeared for the late General Test Examination in 1876, but technically failed in it, for want of a very few marks in Geography, although he had secured a pass in the other subjects. His educational attainments and the manner of his discharging the various duties entrusted to him can be gathered from the good opinion he has been able to secure from his official superiors.

2. In these circumstances, Your Excellency's Petitioner most humbly prays that Your Excellency's benign Government will be graciously pleased to exempt him from passing the Matriculation Examination and the Hand-writing Test, now corresponding to the late General Test, and thus enable him to get some small promotion, after a hard and conscientious work of 18 years, a concession which has been shown to many poor servants like the humble Petitioner.

3. For which act of kindness and charity, the Petitioner, will, as in duty bound, ever pray.

MADRAS, 28th January 1895.

M. Ramanjooloo Naidu

Sir,

In submitting for transmiss-sion to H. E. the Governor the accompanying petition from Mr. Ramangulur Naider a clerk in the Salue Department of my office, I have the honor to state that the petitioner has put in nearly 19 years service, and that he has, as far as I can ascertain, always discharged his duties satisfactorily. The present Talisildar speaks of the man in the very highest terms as one who is very diligent and whose long experience in this office is most valuable. I have been personally acquainted with petitioner since July 1891.
I know nothing to his discredit. On the other hand I have often found him very
