GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper :—

From Rao Bahadur V. KRISHNAMA CHARIAR, Registrar of Books, to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, dated 29th February 1896, No. 44.

I have the honour to submit, for transmission to Government, printed copies of the catalogue of publications received for registration during the fourth quarter of 1895.

2. The publications received and catalogued for the quarter are 262 in number, 207 of which are classed as "books" and 55 as "periodicals."

3. Classified according to languages, the registered publications in English count 82, those in Tamil 51, in Telugu 72, in Malayalam 12, in Kanarese 15, in Tulu 1, in Konkani 1, in Badaga 1, in Mahratti 1, in Hindustani 2, and in Sanskrit 24, including both the Grandha and Nagari editions.

4. A little over 27 per cent. of the publications catalogued are designed for educational purposes.

5. As usual, brief notes on the contents of most of the registered works are entered in the column of remarks.

6. I annex also the printed statement containing the extract of entries with regard to 79 works, whose proprietorship of copyright has been registered on payment of the prescribed fee, excepting in the case of two Government publications registered free of charge. Of the last three entries in the statement, the first appertains to a work registered in the previous quarter, while the other two relate to those published in the last quarter of 1889.

An attempt to popularise by a metrical version in Tamil of Milton's Paradise Lost, Book I. The translator's rendering of the original is considered to be as faithful as possible so far as the exigencies of idiom and metre would allow, and the metre employed is the Tamil Viruttam in which Kamban's Rámáyanam and other great Tamil epic poems are composed. The translator begins with a prose chapter containing a life of Milton, the main story of the Paradise Lost, and explanatory notes and comments to help Tamil readers to understand the argument and the foreign ideas and sentiments of the English epic. Copyright registered.

November	126	Do. ..	1st ..	500	Do.	0 6 0	.....	An interesting account of the famous hero of North Malabar of old, known popularly as Tachcholi Othenan, whose predatory expeditions, wonderful exploits and superhuman achievements recorded in verses are to this day sung with reverence and delight by the working men and women of every class down to Pulayars, who are considered in some places by those rich landlords as part and parcel of the land that they hold. This is the first work of its kind and is said to have occupied the author nearly ten years. He seems to have adopted some of Scott's Waverley Novels as his model. The work is in prose and the style good and humorous.
