Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Land Revenue).

Dated 26th September 1895.

No. 4845 mis:

READ ——— letter from H. Moberly, Esqr. Acting Collector of Malabar, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras, dated 2nd September 1895, Ref: on C. No. $\frac{3314}{P-95}$.

Resolution:– The Board considers that there is no immediate occasion for exemptions on so extensive a scale as that recommended by the Collector. No. 2, Bappu having held a permanent post on Rs 15/- from before the 1st July 1894, no exemption is required for promoting him to a 20 Rupee post. Nos. 4 to 10 will not require any exemption – unless and until they aspire to 15 Rupee posts. The only person whom it is proposed to appoint to a 15 Rupee post and who is not qualified by the Examination rules is No. 3, T. R. Venkatarama Aiyar: but as he has only had 4 years service, it it will be enough if he is exempted — temporarily until a duly qualified candidate can be found. The Board accordingly requests that Government may be pleased to exempt him for 6 months.

2. The difficulty of finding passed men possessed of the necessary experience may be got over by taking them in the first instance as apprentices, a course which the Government has recently sanctioned, at the instance of the Collector of South Canara — (G.O. M. E. D. 311/23-8-95).

C. Nos 1145 + 1162

FOR ORDERS.

These currents were detained for G.O. no. 3348 Rev. dated 19th August '95 which was not available for a long time.

In cur 1145, the Collector of Tanjore states that two Compositorships in the District Press, one on Rs 20 and the other on Rs 15, have remained unfilled for a long time for want of passed men and requests that the concession granted to Compositors at the Govt Press, in G.O. no 490 Ed, 13th June '95, may be extended to Compositors in ~~the~~ District Presses also. In the above G.O. Compositors at the Govt Press are exempted from passing the Primary Examn. until the 1st July 1897; but this concession cannot be extended to Compositors at District Presses, on Rs 15 and upwards, who are required to have passed the Matriculation or the Upper secondary Examn. vide para 2 of G.O. no 745 Ed. dated 5th Oct 1894. Moreover G.O. no 490 Ed. dated 13th June 1895 is incorrect and seems to have been issued under a misapprehension. It appears to have been presumed that Compositors at the Govt Press, were required, irrespective of the pay they get, ~~were re~~ to have passed the Primary Examination only. This is not the case.

Cannot

Compositors on Rs 15 and upwards are required to have passed the Matriculation or the Upper Secondary Exam and Compositors getting less than Rs 15 are required to have passed the Primary Examn. This is clear from the omission of the word compositor in Art 4 clause (11) of the Public Service Notification - vide para 1 (2) of G.O. no 745 Ed. dated 5th Oct 94; also clause (4) at page 9 of Mr. Butterworth's note in the original of the G.O.

FOR ORDERS.

H. E. THE GOVERNOR.

THE HON'BLE MR. H. W. BLISS, C.I.E.

THE HON'BLE MR. J. GROSE.

They may all be exempted from examination tests till the 1st July 97

J G

6/1/96

the G.O. The fact that Compositors on Rs 15 and upwards in District Presses are required to be matriculates or Upper secondary Exam: goes to ~~establish~~ show that Compositors on Rs 15 & upwards at the Govt Press are required to fulfil the same condition.

Orders are solicited whether G.O. $\frac{490}{13-6-95}$ Ed. may be modified so as to restrict the concession granted in it to Compositors receiving less than Rs 15 per mensem, & whether any concession should be granted to Compositors on Rs 15 and upwards.

In Cno 1162, the Collector of Malabar requests that one Compositor on Rs 15, five compositors receiving less than Rs 15, two apprentices and one Ballman may be exempted from the Exam-rules so as to become eligible for promotion. In its Pro. no 4845 - D 26th Sept - 95 the Bd correctly points out that the Compositor on Rs 15 is eligible for promotion & that the rest will not require any exemption until they aspire to 15 Rupee posts The Bd accordingly does not recommend the permanent ~~transfer~~ exemption of any of these men and requests that T. R. Venkatarama Aiyar, a compositor on Rs 12, may be exempted from the Enam. rules, for a period of six months. The question of exempting this man depends on the decision at which the Govt arrives on the question raised in Cur No 1145.

The Ballman is exempt from the Enam. rules & this may be pointed out to the collector.

The suggestion approved in G.O. no 3348 Rev. Dt 19th Aug. 95 does not interfere with the Enam. rules. It is merely a permission to employ volunteers.

Note.

It is presumed that H.M. means that Compositors in all District Presses, not Tanjore & Malabar alone, should be exempted from the Enam. rules. On the contrary I understand H.M.'s ~~[illegible]~~ first remark to refer only to compositors in the Govt. Press. They have already been all exempted in G.O.

H.M.'s order on the rest of the file is "Exemptions may be granted both in Tanjore & Malabar." This seems to mean the exemptions that are asked for & are necessary. A draft on these lines is put up. Perhaps H.M. may be referred to again.
