The Govt of I. has sanctioned a personal allowance of Rs 60 to Sergeant Reynolds; in view of this concession it is submitted that this officer should not be permitted to throw up the appointment at the end of two years and demand a further increase of pay.

But the D.P.I. does not say that he wants him for longer. Some one else will probably be available before the end of that time on a lower salary. Submitted that this may be transferred to the D.P.W. without remark
