To

The Rev. Secretary for penes

Forwarding copy of deni. official letter from Sir Charles Bernard explaining the nature of the assistance which should be given to Meyon de Szalay and Madaras while in India.

Demi-Official letter from Sir Charles Bernard, India Office, London, dated 27th December 1895.

I am directed to forward this unsigned copy of a despatch, which was not signed with the other despatches the day before Christmasday. The usual signed copy will come next mail.

I am told also to say that only official help in prosecuting their enquiries is asked in behalf of these Hungarian gentlemen. It is not intended by the present- or by other similar recommendations to bespeak private hospitality in their behalf, or to suggest public outlay on their account beyond what Government Departments may reasonably do for Scientific visitors sent by a friendly Power

The Secretary to the Government of Madras.

I am directed to forward this undated copy of a despatch, which was not signed with the other despatches the day before yesterday. The usual signed copy will come next mail. I am told also to say that only official help in procuring their enquiries is asked in behalf of these Hungarian gentlemen. It is not intended by the present or by other similar recommendations to bespeak private hospitality in their behalf, or to suggest public outlay on their account beyond what Government Departments may reasonably be for scientific visitors sent by a friendly Power.
