To Mr. H.

Sir

In reply to the query as to whether I have passed any Examination as a Surveyor and Engineer, Draftsman &c -

I beg to state that I served 5 years as an Articled Pupil in the Municipal Eng^l Department of Blackburn in England, and have followed the profession since their expiration over 25 years ago -

I studied at the Grammar School in my Native Town, and during my Apprenticeship I was under the tuition of our then Hd. Draftsman and Assist Municipal Engineer - Mr. J. S. Moulton of King's College - London -

James Abbott.

Surveyor.

Re Sir,

Mr Abbott does not seem to qualify for the post unless exempted If exemption from passing the Surveyors test is necessary I beg that you will be pleased to apply for it on my behalf

Letter from the Executive Engineer, Andhra Western Dⁿ, to the Supg Engineer, 2nd Circle, dated 10th Feby 1896 N^o 439.

In your telegram dated 20th December 1895, you permitted me to appoint a Surveyor in connection with the River Chart-Correction Survey.

2. I appointed a man named James Abbott after testing him on the correcting and plotting of a chain and compass survey and giving of opinion, after examining him verbally that he was a fit man for the post.

3. As Mr Abbott is an Englishman ^{born &} brought up in England, it did not occur to me that an Examination qualification was necessary in his case.

4. I appointed Mr Abbott on the 28th December 1895 to be paid according to results with a maximum of Rs 80.

5. The Examiner may, however, refuse to pass his pay and as he has no funds at his disposal, and requires to be paid to enable him to live. I have the honor to request that if there is any doubt on on the subject you will kindly apply and obtain his exemption.

6. I enclose a statement given by Mr Abbott. The facts stated are not supported by any documents.

No 2408 KS
18.2.96

Forwarded to the Chief Engineer, P. W. Department in continuation of this Office No 2383 KS d/ 15.2.96, for favour of obtaining the sanction of Government to the exemption of Mr Abbott from examination rules during the time he is employed as a Surveyor in the Katha Western B.
