As to whether the extension applied for may be granted?

Submitted that he may be given another chance. He appears to be very well spoken of, and Mr. Brodie says he wants more Sudras in the higher posts in his District. The fact that he has not passed Precis-writing will make little difference to his efficiency as a Sub Magistrate.

To.

H. Bradley Esquire,
Collector, Coimbatore

Sir.

I was temporarily exempted from Precis Writing Test till the results of the last examination were published. I am sorry to inform you that I have not passed that test. I humbly beg that I may be recommended for further exemption

2. I was appointed as acting Deputy Tahsildar of Avanasi in November 1894. During the time I was acting as Dy Tahsildar I have tried to give you satisfaction both in the Revenue & Magisterial branch of my work. In the reviews on the Revenue side my work was more than once remarked as good. In the Magisterial branch I was maintaining a clean file. During 1895 I had over 600 cases including 10 Sessions Cases, which is about the average of a heavy Division in this District, yet it was scarcely that the cases were pending over one month on my file. For over a month I was in charge of the Palladam Dn also in addition to Avanasi & even then the pending cases ~~did~~ were within the usual limit.

3. In addition to the proof of the way in which I was discharging my duty as a Deputy Tahsildar, I beg to submit herewith copies of testimonials given to me by your predecessors, wherefrom it may be seen that I am competent to be a Sub Magistrate.

4. I was a Revenue Inspector for nearly two years & Magisterial Clerk both under the Collector & the Sub Collector for over two years & thereby had a sufficient training for the post I now hold.

5. Under these circumstances I beg that my failure in the last Revenue Test alone will not be taken as being sufficient to order me to revert to my Clerical post after 15 months' service as a Deputy Tahsildar, & humbly request that you will kindly recommend me for further exemption; for which piece of kindness I shall feel highly grateful.

6. As the present Head Assistant Collector is quite new to the Division and also to save time, I submit this petition direct to you instead of through him, for which I beg to be excused.

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most obedient Servant

1.

P. Tangavelu Mudr. BA was a Revenue Inspector in the Sub Div. when I was Sub Collector of Coimbatore. I promoted him to be Magisterial Clerk of the Joint Magistrate's Office & then to be Magisterial Clerk under the District Magistrate. He is a quiet, painstaking & intelligent Clerk. I think he would make a good Sub Magistrate

2. Tangavelu Mudr. has been my Magisterial Clerk for about six months. He is intelligent & painstaking & did his work satisfactorily. He has a very fair knowledge of Criminal Law ~~&~~ might be tried as Sub Magistrate.

I ~~have~~ never heard any thing against his character.

This man has been my Magisterial Clerk for some months. I have been very pleased with him. He knows quite enough to be a Sub Magistrate & is a good worker. I have never heard a word against his character. You might do a deal worse than try him

READ the following letter from Herbert Bradley Esqr., Collector of Coimbatore, Ref. on Petn. No. 210/Rev. of 96. dated 12 February 1896. to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras.

I have the honor to forward, for orders, an application for exemption from the Precis Writing Test from P. Tangavelu Mudali, acting Sub Magistrate and Deputy Tahsildar of Avanashi in this district.

2. He obtained a temporary exemption from the Examination until the results of the last Special Test Examination were known, but he has failed to pass.

3. He has done well as Deputy Tahsildar and Sub-Magistrate, and I should be glad if it can be arranged that he could be further exempted.
