That your Excellency's petitioner is the great grandson of Nawab Wallajah of Carnatic repute, and the son of Mohomed Abdul Wahab Saheb, who during his life time was in the receipt of a stipend. On his death your petitioner was given a pension of Rs 14/8 which the Government was pleased to commute to a lump sum of Rs 2,175 and odd.

4. Your Excellencys petitioner further begs to state that he would be extremely thankful if the paternal Government would be pleased to grant him an exemption of a nature that would permit him to appear for the several Special Test Examinations qualifying for higher appointments in the public service.

5. Your petitioner in submitting this petition sends accompanying ~~this petition~~ a geneological table shewing his direct descent from the illustrious Wallajah. and trust in conclusion that as the Government is taking great interest in those descended from noble families in compliance with a Despatch from the Secretary of State, it would also be pleased to favourably consider this petition for which Your Excellency's petitioner will ever feel grateful and in duty bound will ever pray.
