I cannot recommend the petitioner for promotion. His abilities are poor, and there are many men in the district junior to him far better qualified for Sub Magistrates' posts. Until quite recently he was not entrusted with second class powers although he has been a Magistrate since 1891. He must therefore have failed to give satisfaction to previous Collectors.

His Excellency the Governor in Council
Madras.

Through The Honorable Members
Of the Board of Revenue
Madras.

My lords.

I, B. Kristnaiengar Taluk Sheristadar of Kollegal most respectfully beg to represent the following grievous circumstance which is a general one at the same time as it is a personal to me and request that the Honorable Members of the Board of Revenue would be gracious to move the Government to remove it.

It has been the rule in years gone by, that persons who passed the general test, Matriculation and at the highest F. A. examinations were employed in various Government capacities and they rose to high position of responsibility and pay were though they had passed only lower standars of the Special tests. At a time when such a rule was in force and practice, I entered the service about 28 years ago and have served since in various capacities from the lowest rank of a Taluk Gumastah to that of the Taluk Sheristadar which I now hold. I have in the interval also held positions of no mean order and responsibility such as the Head Clerk of the Sub Collector's office Erode and Magisterial clerk Collector's office Coimbatore. It is needless for me to submit here, that I have served all along honestly and creditably which will be attested by the certificates enclosed herewith and that I have been one of those who expected to get my reward for the long and hard struggle I had to pass through. Unfortunately for me I was passed over during a long period when occasions arose.

Yet I was all along entertaining the hope that patience and honesty would in the long end place me at least above want if not in a more lucrative position. But sad to say it is found now that this is not also to be realised. I understand that the Government has now ruled that officers who have not passed the criminal or Revenue Higher Test should not be appointed to the posts of Deputy Tahsildar and Stationary Magistrate. Had this Government rule been in force before, it is sure that persons in my position would not have failed to have appeared and passed for the same before. The introduction of a rule all on a sudden cutting off the chances of officers in my position works a great hardships and in fact has thrown all of us in a spirit of utter dejection and hopelessness. It may be asked why we could not pass. This is a hard question to men who are nearing the wrong side of 50. To add to the difficulty of studying and passing these examinations, comes in the additional requisite qualification that only F. As are permitted to appear for them. I humbly beg to submit that it would be an almost impossible task for men like me to study for them now. The Government which has been always holding the interests and prosperity of its trusted servants at heart and has all along shown its gracious spirit to them, cannot certainly consider that unfortunate men like me should be left to wade through the mire of poverty till the date of our retirement for poverty certainly is to have a large family of more than 1/2 a dozen children to depend for everything on the 60 Rs I get.

no

I therefore beg that the Government may in consideration of my past good service, consider to relax the rule generally or specially in my hard case and confer on me a Deputy Tahsildar or Stationary sub Magistrate's post.

I beg to remain
My lord
His Excellency's most obedient and humble servant.

B. Kristnaiengar, Head Clerk.

Every Sub Collector has had the same good opinion of Kristnaiengar, but his health has suffered from over work. I hope to hear of his passing his examination this year when he is certainly entitled to the first promotion that is going. He would long ago have been promoted but for the technical defect of not having passed a particular test.

17. B. Kristnaiengar Head Clerk has served under me in that Capacity for nearly 3 years now and always performed his duty well and thoroughly. While he acted as sheristadar too he gave much satisfaction. Should the post of Sheristadar fall vacant he should, I think, get it and if there is no chance of that he should be given a trial as a Dy Tahsildar on the first opportunity a he has now passed all the qualifying tests.
