Sir 15th Jany, Fort St George.

Mr. S. Atkinson, our Telegraph Master, having applied for an increase of pay, the Committee, at its meeting on the 8th instant, resolved unanimously to recommend his case strongly for favorable consideration; and, in support thereof, I am requested to point out, that he is in the receipt of Rs 80 instead of Rs 100 per mensem, and receives Rs 10, as premium for each boy passed, instead of Rs 15, as sanctioned in G.O. 16th December 1892, para 1, (4).

2. I am informed that his services were engaged on his present pay and allowances in anticipation of sanction for reopening the Telegraph Class, and before the receipt of the order quoted above.

3. The quarters supplied to the Instructor, having been found unsuited and uncomfortable, with the Principal's permission, he has been permitted to reside at Otacama-mund; and he has, therefore, to meet the cost of house rent and other expenses, besides being put to the inconvenience of having to go into Lonedale, in all weathers, to instruct his classes.

4. The Committee so highly appreciates Mr. S. Atkinson's services, that it hopes the recommendation now made for the higher rate of pay and allowances, noted in the order above mentioned, will be granted.

Sir.

In reply to your no C174 of the 22nd instant, I have the honor to inform you that, if the request contained in my no 1627 of the 11th inst., is sanctioned at once, it is proposed to meet the increased rates of salary and allowance from the balance of Rs 4682, expected to remain at credit at the close of the current year, and provision will be made for meeting the increase in the budget for 1896-97.

I have the honor to be
