TESTIMONIALS OF K. SUNDRAM AIYAR.

1. K. Sundramaiyar was a Volunteer in the Collector's Office, when I joined Tanjore. Finding him sharp and intelligent, I took him into the Treasury on acting appointment. It is believed he holds now a permanent footing but on the lowest pay of Rs. 15. He was always willing to take any extra work given him and he did it well. By his keen intellect he made himself very useful in the Department. If he is encouraged by way of promotion to any post in Taluks, he is sure to turn out a good Revenue Officer. He may now be considered too young, at any rate he deserves encouragement.

I have known the applicant since many years, even from the time that I was English Head accountant in the Treasury Deputy Collector's office. He has done his work competent to the entire satisfaction of his superiors likewise as Dy. Hd accountant & treasurer in this Taluk for the last four months. He is quite competent for the post he applies for; and if he succeeds, I am confident he will do justice to the appointment
