Reorganization of the Subordinate Educational Service.

Permitting the Director of Public Instruction to submit his proposals for the —.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper:—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. D. Duncan, M.A., D.Sc., Director of Public Instruction, Madras.
To—the Chief Secretary to Government.
Dated—10th February 1896.
No.—1177.

I have the honour, with reference to the observation of Government in paragraph 11 of its order, Nos. 945, 946, Educational, dated 31st December 1895, to request that you will be good enough to move the Government to permit me to resubmit, with such alterations as may be necessary, my proposals for the reorganization of the Subordinate Educational Service.

2. Several changes have been made in the sanctioned scales of establishments since the date of my letter No. 10892, dated 27th September 1893, and it will take some time before the figures are revised up to date and the necessary proposition statements are prepared by me and checked by the Accountant-General. By the time the proposals are considered by Government and the sanction of the Government of India is obtained, the Secretary of State's orders on the scheme for the reorganization of the European and Provincial branches of the Educational Service will probably have been received, and the whole scheme may be introduced simultaneously.

3. With reference to clause (2) of G.O., No. 793, Educational, dated 3rd November 1893, acting allowances between the grades will be given up.

4. Full explanation regarding maxima and minima adverted to in clause (3) of the Government order quoted in the last preceding paragraph will be furnished in submitting revised proposals.

Order—No. 219, Educational, dated 7th April 1896.

The Director may submit his proposals for the reorganization of the Subordinate Educational Service.

Chief Secretary.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., MIS. No. 219, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 7th APRIL 1896.

[Subject.—Reorganization of the Subordinate Educational Service.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, No. 1177, dated 10*th February* 1896.

Please see G.O., No. 793, Educational, dated 3rd November 1893. The Director proposes to submit proposals which will be free from the objections pointed out in the above Government order.

2. The notes and orders in that Government order show that the main reason why it was at that time thought impossible to proceed at once with the reorganization of the Subordinate Service was that the dividing line between it and the Provincial Service was not clearly marked. In a letter from the Government of India which had been received shortly before (in G.O., No. 646, Educational, dated 4th September 1893) that Government had objected to the division by rates of salaries under which all officers drawing Rs. 200 and over were to be in the Provincial Service, and all drawing less in the Subordinate Service.

3. But subsequently on hearing from the Director of Public Instruction (paragraph 3 of his letter in G.O., No. 830, Educational, dated 13th November 1893) this Government stuck to its guns (paragraph 4 of letter No. 831, Educational, dated 13th November 1893) that the Rs. 200 limit should be the dividing line. Nothing more has been heard from the Government of India, so apparently it accepts this.

4. Thus the great obstacle to the consideration of the reorganization has been removed.

A great many posts are remaining unfilled pending the reorganization (vide G.Os., No. 926, Educational, dated 20th December 1893, and No. 268, Educational, dated 23rd April 1894).

5. The Director of Public Instruction in a demi-official of to-day's date asks for very early orders. It was not known before that he was in a hurry or this would have been taken earlier. As it was it was put with other ordinary papers, and these in the rush of work which has occurred lately have got somewhat behindhand.

Demi-official from the Hon'ble Mr. D. Duncan, M.A., D.Sc., Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 2nd April 1896.

Will you kindly get early orders passed on my No. 1177, dated 10th February last, relating to the reorganization of the Subordinate Educational Service? My reason for pressing this matter is that April, May and June are the slack months of the year with me and it is next to impossible to do justice to a big question during the remaining nine months of the year.

2. While there is good reason why Government should not pass final orders on the reorganization of the Subordinate Service till the orders of the Secretary of State have been received regarding the European and Provincial Services, I can see no reason why Government should hesitate to sanction my tentative elaboration of the details of the Subordinate Service. It will commit Government to nothing, and if my proposals have to be rejected on receipt of the Secretary of State's orders (which is not at all likely), the only regret will be that my office has had a good deal of work in vain. This is a contingency which is not likely to happen, however, as it has been practically settled that the Subordinate Service shall consist of all appointments under Rs. 200.

3. I trust that Government will pass early and favourable orders, so that I may take the matter up without delay.

CHIEF SECRETARIAT
-2. APR. 1896
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

My dear Price

Will you kindly get ~~early~~ orders passed on my No. 1177 d/10 Feb last, relating to the reorganization of the Subordinate Educational Service. My reasons for pressing this matter is that April, May & June are the "slack months" of the year with me & it is next to impossible to do justice to a big question during the remaining nine months of the year.

While there is good reason why Government should not pass final orders on the re-organization of the subordinate service till the orders of the Secretary of State have been received regarding the European & Provincial services, I can see no reason why Government should hesitate to sanction my tentative elaboration of the details of the sub-ordinate service. It will commit Government to nothing, and if my proposals have to be rejected on receipt of the Secretary of States orders (which is not at all likely), the only regret will be that my office has had a good deal of work in vain. This is a contingency which is not likely to happen, however, as it has been practically settled that the subordinate service shall consist of all appointments under Rupees Two Hundred.

I trust that Government will pass early & favourable orders, so that I may take the matter up without delay.

Truly yours

D Duncan

Note.

Please see G.O. no 793 Ed. d 3rd Nov. 93. The Director proposes to submit proposals which will be free from the objections pointed out in the above G.O.

The notes ~~fr~~ and orders in that G.O. show that the main reason why it was at that time thought impossible to proceed at once with the reorganization of the subordinate service was that the dividing line between it and the Provincial service was not clearly marked. In a letter from the Govt. of India which had been received shortly before (in G.O. 646. Ed. / 4.9.93) that Govt. had objected to the division by rates of salaries under which all officers drawing Rs. 200 & over were to be in the Provincial service, & all drawing less in the subordinate service.

But subsequently on hearing from the D.P.I. (para 3. of his letter in G.O. 830. Ed. / 13.11.93) this Govt. stuck to its guns (para 4. of letter No 831. Ed / 13.11.93) that the Rs. 200 limit should be the dividing line. Nothing more has been heard from the Govt. of India, so apparently it accepts this.

Thus the great obstacle to the consideration of the reorganization has been removed.

A great many posts are remaining unfilled pending the reorganizatn. (vide G.O.s 926 / 20.12.93 & 268 / 23.4.94 Ed.).
