His Excellency

BEILBY BARON WENLOCK, G.C.I.E.,

GOVERNOR OF MADRAS.

*The humble petition of SHUBBER HUSSAIN,
Inspector of Police, Pattucottai Taluq,
Tanjore District, in obedience to G. O.,
No. 63, dated 21st January 1896,
Judicial.*

RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH—

That Your Excellency having taken a special interest in the Petitioner, on account of the high family to which he belongs, has been graciously pleased to exempt him permanently from the Matriculation and Handwriting Test Examinations and temporarily (for two years) from the Criminal Lower and Precis writing tests (vide G.O., Nos. 5837 of 9th October 1894 and 7152 of 5th December 1894). This kindness was done to the Petitioner on the recommendation of the Inspector-General of Police who had written to Government before Petitioner's entertainment to permanently exempt him from the Criminal and Precis test also, but your Petitioner was exempted from passing these tests only temporarily and your Petitioner was entertained in the service on the 16th January 1895. Since his employment he has been serving to the entire satisfaction of his superiors who have written of him thus:—

“ Visited station to look into Kilamangalam Murder case, in which Inspector Shubber Hussain has acted very promptly and well. Arms are very clean and I am glad to see the Nuisance Act being worked up. The station shows a marked improvement since my last visit.”

(Signed) C. C. LONGDEN,
Assistant Superintendent of Police.

Remark in Crime No. 1/56, Section 302 and Crime 1/56 a, Section 307, Crime No. 4/65, Section 393. “ You did well and you must keep it up. It will be good for you to exact a good name and reward which you can easily do by working hard. I have made favourable remarks about your conduct in the case which has gone up to the Inspector-General and you can rest content with that.”

(Signed) C. C. LONGDEN,
Assistant Superintendent of Police.

As Your Excellency is leaving the Presidency and as Petitioner may not be able for some time at least to make the personal acquaintance of Sir Arthur Havelock, he begs that ere Your Excellency leaves Madras, final orders may be passed entirely exempting him from the Tests abovenamed.

This will not prevent your Petitioner endeavouring to pass the examinations, but he is anxious to be assured of his position in the department. Your Petitioner will also be very grateful for any favourable recommendation to Your Excellency's successor so that ultimately Petitioner may rise to one of the gazetted appointments now open to natives of India in the Police Service—an appointment which may, your Petitioner respectfully submits, be held with credit to the Service by one belonging to such a family as he is.

Submitted to Government for orders.

The Inspector has done fairly well as an Inspector and I should like to keep him in the Department. I am afraid however that he will not pass the Criminal Court or Precis Writing Test. It is, I think, expedient that he should at all events be made to try and pass the Criminal Court
