Sharpe and Conolly Scholarships.

Approving and ordering publication in the Fort

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From the Hon'ble Mr. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc., Director of Public Instruction, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 10th March 1896,
No. 2814.

I have the honour to submit the enclosed revised rules relating to the Sharpe and Conolly (Junior and Senior) scholarships for approval and publication in the Fort St. George Gazette.

2. The present rules were approved by Government in G.O., No. 593, Educational, dated 12th August 1892, and published in the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 20th August 1892.

3. A difficulty occurred last year in the selection of a candidate for the award of the Junior Conolly scholarship, none of the natives of the Malabar district having passed the Matriculation Examination held in December 1894 in the first class. The names of candidates passing in the second class are printed in alphabetical order in the Gazette and there is therefore no means of knowing the rank of the successful candidates in the second class except by a reference to the Registrar of the University. But under the University notification published in the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 22nd March 1892, Part II, page 533, no information about the marks obtained by any candidate or about his rank can be furnished by the Registrar. There is thus no other alternative than to revise the rules to obviate the above difficulty, and I have therefore the honour to recommend that the three scholarships above referred to may be awarded to the students who stand highest among the successful candidates in the first class at the University Examinations. Should no one pass in the first class in any year, the scholarship would not be awarded. But I think that a candidate failing to pass in the first class does not deserve the scholarship. All scholarships should be for merit and not for an ordinary pass.

4. The capital of the Conolly Memorial Fund is Rs. 14,100 and that of the Sharpe Memorial Fund is Rs. 2,900. At the reduced rate of interest, the annual interest will, respectively, amount to Rs. 493-8-0 and Rs. 101-8-0, and the scholarships should be limited to about Rs. 486 and Rs. 96, to allow a fair margin for commission payable to the bank every time interest is drawn. I would accordingly recommend that the rate of the scholarships be reduced as follows :—

						Per mensem.
						RS.	A.	P.
Junior Conolly Scholarship ..	..	..	..	..	..	6	12	0
Senior Conolly Scholarship ..	..	..	..	..	..	13	8	0
Sharpe Scholarship ..	..	..	..	..	..	8	0	0

5. A draft notification embodying the above amendments is submitted for approval.

ENCLOSURE.

NOTIFICATION.

The following rules in connection with the Sharpe and Conolly scholarships are published :—

THE SHARPE SCHOLARSHIP.

The Sharpe scholarship of the value of Rs. 96 per annum (or Rs. 8 per mensem) shall be awarded by the Director of Public Instruction every alternate year, without reference to creed or caste, to a native of Malabar who, not being the holder of the Conolly or other private scholarship, stands highest in the first class on the list of successful candidates at the immediately preceding Matriculation Examination of the University of Madras.

2. The scholarship shall be tenable during the two years of the F.A. course in any college in Malabar affiliated to the University of Madras, provided that the conduct of the holder and his progress in his studies continue to be satisfactory to the head of his college.

3. The scholarship may, with the sanction of the Director of Public Instruction, be withdrawn any time if, in the opinion of the head of his college, the holder fails to make due progress in his studies or is guilty of misconduct.

4. In the event of the scholarship becoming vacant during the first year, it shall be awarded in accordance with the rules on the results of the next succeeding Matriculation Examination. In the event of its becoming vacant during, and before the end of, the second year, the unexpended portion, if any, of the scholarship, shall be added to the fund.

THE CONOLLY SCHOLARSHIPS.

Junior Scholarship.

A Junior Conolly scholarship, of the value of Rs. 81 per annum (or Rs. 6-12-0 per mensem) shall be awarded annually by the Director of Public Instruction, without reference to creed or caste, to a native of Malabar who, not being the holder of the Sharpe or other private scholarship, stands highest in the first class on the list of successful candidates at the immediately preceding Matriculation Examination of the University of Madras.

2. The scholarship shall be tenable during the two years of the F.A. course in any college in Malabar affiliated to the University of Madras, or in the Presidency College, provided that the conduct of the holder and his progress in his studies continue to be satisfactory to the head of his college.

3. The scholarship may, with the sanction of the Director of Public Instruction, be withdrawn at any time if, in the opinion of the head of his college, the holder fails to make due progress in his studies or is guilty of misconduct.

4. In the event of the scholarship becoming vacant during the first year, it shall be awarded in accordance with the rules on the results of the next succeeding Matriculation Examination. In the event of its becoming vacant during, and before the end of, the second year, the unexpended portion, if any, of the scholarship, shall be added to the fund.

Senior Scholarship.

A Senior Conolly scholarship, of the value of Rs. 162 per annum (or Rs. 13-8-0 per mensem) shall be awarded annually by the Director of Public Instruction, without reference to creed or caste, to a native of Malabar who, not being the holder of any other private scholarship, stands highest in the first class on the list of successful candidates at the immediately preceding First Examination in Arts of the University of Madras.

2. The scholarship shall be tenable during the two years of the B.A. course in the Presidency College, provided that the conduct of the holder and his progress in his studies continue to be satisfactory to the head of his college.

3. The scholarship may, with the sanction of the Director of Public Instruction, be withdrawn at any time if, in the opinion of the head of his college, the holder fails to make due progress in his studies or is guilty of misconduct.

4. In the event of the scholarship becoming vacant during the first year, it shall be awarded in accordance with the rules on the results of the next succeeding First Examination in Arts. In the event of its becoming vacant during, and before the end of, the second year, the unexpended portion, if any, of the scholarship, shall be added to the fund.
