Subject.

Submitting for the favorable consideration of Govt letter from the Conservator of Forests Circular, requesting to recommend to Govt to exempt Mr. Gaudoin from passing the examination in Forest Law.

As to whether the exemption may be granted? The examn is in the Subject (B) Law prescribed in art 62 of the Forest Code. From art 65, it would app that the examn is not a difficult one perhaps however considering his disposition, his long service & his good character he may be exempted The examn rules were devised to raise the standard of knowledge among public servants, but this enforcement in this case is apparently result in the dismissal of a useful officer. He may be exempted

Forest No. 239.

Miscellaneous.

READ the following letter from E. P. Popert Esq^r, Conservator of Forests, Central Circle, Madras, Ref^d. No. 1961 dated 3. 2. 96.

From the report received from the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, I find Extra Assistant Conservator of Forests, Mr. J. Gandoni has again failed to pass the Examination in Forest Law.
From my own knowledge I am aware that Mr. Gandoni possesses a fair knowledge of Forest Law. I tested this myself when lately in the District. He is an officer of nearly 21 years service.
He is very nervous and completely loses his head at an Examination. I do not think he will ever succeed in passing. As he is an officer who throughout throughout has become a good character and whom I consider it would be hard to punish for inability to pass an examination at his age.

I have the honor to suggest that the Board recommend Government to exempt him from passing.

Resolution

Submitted for the favorable consideration of Government.
