Requesting Sanction for the Continuance of Serjeant Reynolds in the —— on a Salary of Rs 300 per mensem from 1st January next.

H.M.

For orders.

The pay of the Instructorship is Rs 200-20-300 & Serjt Reynolds now gets Rs 240 under G.O. no 396 Ed. dated 15th June 93 under which he has granted a personal allowance of Rs 40. He has now put in nearly three years' service in the grade and will be entitled to the third increment on the 1st March next. (ie) he will get Rs 260 from March next.

The ~~sanction~~ Grant of a personal allowance of Rs 60 p.m. to Serjt Reynolds requires the sanction of the Govt of I. under Art 93 (1) C S R. vide AG's letter recorded in G.O. no 477 Ed. dated 7th July 1893.

Please also see the linked file. If the Govt is not prepared to grant a personal allowance to Serjt Reynolds, the order in that file may issue! It is difficult to believe that there is no one else in the D.P.W. fit for the post

7/12

11/12/95

Perhaps the C.E. will tell us why no one fit for the post can be spared.

If it is so, the extra allowance must be given.

The [illegible] order in the linked file had better be over till the matter is settled.

Sir,

Cnd in the linked file.

With reference to para 2 of my letter no. C-156 dated 16th ultimo, I have the honour to bring to the notice of Government that Major Love informs me that he is not able to secure the services of a competent person from the Public Works Department to succeed Serjeant Reynolds as Instructor in Engineering at the College of Engineering. He accordingly requests that Serjeant Reynolds be continued. Serjeant Reynolds is now drawing a salary of Rs 240 per mensem under Government order no.

Ed. Cor. 15 (b) 1,500—17-11-94.

No. 111 Educational, dated 13th February 1893, but he is not willing to continue in the department on a less salary than Rs. 300 per mensem.

[illegible]

This is [illegible]
He is drawing Rs 240 under G.O. 396/15-6-93

2. Sometime back Major Love recommended that two appointments in the Upper Subordinate Service on Rs 300 - 400 should be reserved for the Instructor in Engineering and the Instructor in Surveying and Drawing and that they should be filled by European Military Upper Subordinates of the Public works Department, and Colonel Pennycuick endorsed the recommendation in a general way. But I could not see my way to support the recommendation, as its adoption would virtually be the transfer of two appointments from the Provincial to the European Service and would seriously disturb the classification of officers in the Provincial Branch of the proposed reorganization scheme.

No. 235 L/23-7-95.

3. The want of competent persons in the Public works Department who would be willing to take up the place, if vacated by Sergeant Reynolds, on the salary now offered to him renders it necessary that he should be reengaged on the terms mentioned by him; and I beg strongly to recommend that the sanction of Government may be obtained for his drawing a salary of Rs 300 per mensem from 1st January next until the services of some other person can be secured on a lower pay, or until he earns that pay in the usual course. Under ordinary circumstances, he would draw Rs 260 per mensem from 1st March next; so that, the personal allowance to be sanctioned for him would be Rs 60 for two months, Rs 40 for twelve months and Rs 20 for twelve months. The extra charge can be met, from savings under 'Salaries' in consequence of Mr Middlemast's de-putation.

4. I solicit the favour of very early sanction.

Note by the Chief Engineer P. W. Dept:—

The Honorable Member as well as the Chief Secretary appear to be under an entire misapprehension as to the facts, though the former is more nearly correct than the latter.

2. It is not the case either that "there is no one else in the D. P. W. fit for the post" or that "no one fit for the post can be spared," but simply that the pay is not sufficient to attract men who are fit for the post.

3. On this point see my letter to the Director of

Public Instruction No. 2354 C of 23rd July 1895.

4. I am bound to say that I look with extreme distaste upon the practice of transferring subordinates of one Department to work under another on duties entirely foreign to those which they ordinarily perform, and that this distaste is especially strong in the case of subordinates of the kind under consideration, who are the best and most useful men we have and whose services we can ill spare.

5. It would be very much better if the Educational Department would make its own arrangements for the enlistment of its own staff without indenting on this Department, but if the latter course is a necessity it may be taken as certain that the pay must be considerably increased.

6. It is useless to try to get for two hundred rupees an article worth four hundred.

Sir,

Sergeant B. Reynolds, a warrant officer of the P.W.D., whose appointment to the post of Instructor in Engineering in the Madras College of Engineering on a salary of Rs 200 rising to Rs 300 per mensem was sanctioned by the S of S. in his despatch no 2 Public d [illegible] my letter no 282 Ed- d the 27th April 1893, and who was thereafter ~~had been~~ permitted by the P. W. D. to continue in the College ~~till~~ until the 31st Dec. 95, expressed in November last his desire to revert to his permanent appointment ~~in the P.W.D.~~ from the beginning of the current Calendar year. Attempts ~~Enquiries~~ were at once made ~~instituted~~ in the P. W. D. to procure a suitable successor to Sergt. Reynolds ~~him in the College~~ but there was no competent officer of that Dept & willing to accept the post on the salary offered viz: Rs 200 rising by five annual increments ~~could be found~~ to Rs 300 per mensem. It has therefore been found necessary to retain Sergeant Reynolds in the College. ~~but~~ As, ~~however~~, he is unwilling to continue there on a less salary than Rs 300 per mensem. and as he is Sergeant Reynolds is now drawing Rs 240 p.m. ~~and~~ I am to request that the Govt of I. will be pleased to sanction a personal allowance of Rs 60 p.m. to him from the 1st January 1896. I am to add that in the ordinary course Sergeant Reynolds would draw Rs 260 p.m. from the 1st March next, so that the personal allowance proposed would be Rs 60 for 2 months, Rs 40 for 12
