SIR,

Enclosures.

With reference to G.O. (Educational) dated 3rd May 1895 No. 357 in which Muhammad Asadulla Sahib was exempted from the Precis Writing test until the next examination in that test, I have the honor to say that the Clerk appeared at the last examination but failed.

The Clerk was continually on Circuit with me last year and is a very good Circuit Clerk. He writes a first rate hand and works hard and willingly. I have often to travel very rapidly and to put up in out of the way places where accommodation is bad but the man never grumbles and is always up to date with his work. He is a quiet Muhammadan who answers my purposes very well. He never or very seldom has any drafting to do as he is fully occupied in merely copying and despatching what I give him. The office requires a man of his stamp who is able to arrange marches, gets on quietly with all sorts and kinds of men and is not above doing work as a Mutchi or despatcher in addition to his work as a clerk and one who has no objection to long hours all over the Presidency. I should much like if Government could

8461
could see him exempted from the Officer's Writing Test which I half fear he will never pass. He has the characteristics of a Muhammadan and his Slowness probably prevented his passing the examination.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Most Obedt. Servant,

M. M. M. M. M.

Inspector General of Police.
