Office of the Assistant Inspector of Schools

(Through the Inspector of Schools, for the Circle)

Sir,

In reference to paragraph 4 of your Proceedings No. 1071 dated 7th February 1896, reviewing the District report on Ganjam for 1894-95, I have the honour to submit that Vizianagaram is more central than Vizagapatam and it is the Headquarters of the Principal Assistant Collector of the Vizagapatam District, and is also the seat of a First grade College, besides being the Capital of the Vizianagaram Sansthanam. It is a place from which one has to proceed to the interior of the District and which is to be frequently visited in the year, it containing the Railway Station by which the up and down trains pass in the morning and evening; so that one can conveniently break his journey and resume it by the next train without hindrance to his duties. Next to Vizagapatam it is the most important town in the District. It is more suitable to be made the Headquarters Station of the Assistant Inspector, First Division, than any other town in the Ganjam and Vizagapatam Districts; other considerations also such as cheapness of living, climate of the place and cost of travelling make it more agreeable than either Vizagapatam or Chicacole which is far away from the Railway Station and is in a declining condition. Vizagapatam District is more important than Ganjam in an educational point of view and the headquarters of the Assistant Inspector should, for many reasons, be situated in the former.

The Agency tracts of this District which are the largest in the Northern Circars can be more easily reached from Vizianagaram than from any other town and with less cost to the State. It is neither too near to the sea nor too far from it so that the officers who return from Agency tours at about the close of the year can halt there without detrimento their health and work. Neither Vizagapatam nor Chicacole affords this advantage. I request therefore that my head quarters be transferred to Vizianagaram from 1 April next and if my proposal cannot be accepted I request that special permission be granted to me to reside in the first quarter of the official year at Vizianagaram. Vizagapatam District is badly in want of a third Sub Assistant Inspector and this want necessitates the location of the Assistant Inspector's office in this District at least for some years to come.
