I have the honour to request further that Government will be pleased to accord general sanction for the appointment as Postmasters of the low-paid Government teachers as well who are employed in village girls' schools and in the Agency tracts. Sir,

In obedience to your endorsement No $\frac{3601}{7-11-95}$ on the petition submitted to the Inspectress of Govt. Girls Schools by Pattamatta Ramiah garu late Branch Post Master Neelapally, I beg to submit my explanation as follows:-

Your honour's predecessor in office was pleased to transfer me from Cocanada as the Headmaster of Girl School Neelapally in August last. I received an order on 1-10-95 from the Postal Dept. appointing me as branch Post Master of this village carrying a salary of Rs 5 (per mensem) including contingencies, & dispensing with the services of P. Ramiah (Permanent man) as his income from other sources was considered by the Departments to have been less than the fixed amount (Rs 10 per m). Being given to understand that the Postal Dept will communicate the same to the Inspectress through the proper channel for necessary approval of my appointment and seeing that several Local fund & Govt. Girls School masters hold branch Post masters

I have the honor to be

Sir,

your most obedient servant,

Head Master.

posts in the villages in which they are employed; for instance Govt. Girl School Master at Jaggampeta & Kirlampoody; and the appointment order from the Inspector being sent to me without my previous knowledge of it, I did not think that I had to report and I had scarcely any time for obtaining your honour's permission for accepting the same. I beg to add that the postal duties require my services out of my school hours, the hours of arrival and departure of daily mails being between 11 am and 1 P.M. and that consequently it has never been interfering with my legitimate school work the same being done at home and that the postal work of this insignificant village is besides very limited and easy light. In conclusion I beg to request that your honour will be so good as to permit a poor subordinate of yours getting a poor salary of Rs 9 per mensem to continue the branch Post Master. A copy of the time table fixed for the discharge of the postal duties is enc
