My dear Grose

Nelson has been twice to see me to-day about the 9 or 10 days leave to enable him to run home during the Midsummer holidays. I sent in the application to Price on Thursday & he should have had it yesterday morning at latest.

My dear Davidson.

As Francis goes this evening I write to you. I don't know anything of Nelsons application and did not see it. He asked me in a casual way about it at the club and I told him to write ap. to Duncan. Will you kindly see the thing through. I suppose from what Duncan says to Thw in the enclosed that his letter has been received.

I don't know what Ethel means - Govt can let Nelson as a special case have casual leave or if there due to him privilege leave in anticipation or continuation of vacation - ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~

My dear Francis

I send you the enclosed about a leave application of Nelson's. By a series of postal blunders it never reached me in Madras & I found waiting me here on arrival just now.

I imagine Nelson or Duncan must have written or telegraphed again; if so orders have already issued; if not, will you take the necessary action

Yours sincerely

Lionel Davidson

Enclosure

Mr. Nelson

Recommending nine days casual leave on behalf of ——

Educational De

C.No. 493.

For orders.

Mr. Nelson, Principal of the Law College applies for casu leave for nine days from the 17th to the 25th instant as he wants to leave Madras on the evening of the 16th for England on account of urgent private affairs.

Under para 1 of G.O. No. 853 Firl dated 17th October 1894 the grant of casual leave is limited to five days at a tim or to ten days in a year. ~~It~~ There is however, it is submitted, ~~to~~ nothing preventing Government fro [illegible] granting leave in excess of these periods in special cases - Dr. Wilson was recently given 9 or 10 day casual leave before & after the Presidency College vacation to enable him to go to Englan This paper is now with H.E. the Governor.

From the 17" to the 5" instant there comes one unday which should under G.O.
No. 714 Finl of 20.9.95 be excluded from the 5 days' limit – So the days asked for actually mean only 8 days.

If it is thought that Mr Nelson is to have the 9 days' casual leave the following draft order is submitted for approval in order to save delay:–

Order 249 of 14-4-96.
mis.

There is no objection to Mr. Nelson having 9 days' casual leave from the 17 to the 25" instant.
