PUBLIC (EDUCATIONAL).

No. 28.

To His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor General of India in Council.

MY LORD,

I forward for the consideration of Your Excellency in Council copy of the correspondence noted in the margin, relating to the hour at which the examinations of the University of London held in India should commence, and I request that you will cause the necessary instructions to be issued to the Local Governments.

I have the honour to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble Servant,

GEORGE HAMILTON.

No. 15, dated Calcutta, the 22nd January 1896.

From—N. BONHAM-CARTER, Esq., C.S., Under Secretary to the Government of Bengal, General Department,

To—The Under Secretary of State for India, London.

I am directed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal to submit the enclosed copy of a letter from the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, No. 437, dated the 18th January 1896, with enclosures, together with a sealed packet said to contain the answer papers, and the entry form duly filled up of the three candidates who appeared at the London University Matriculation Examination held in Calcutta on the 13th January 1896, and subsequent days. I am to request that copies of the letter from the Director of Public Instruction and the enclosures thereto together with the packet may be forwarded in due course to the Registrar of the London University.

2. With reference to paragraph 4 of the Director of Public Instruction's letter, I am to say that the authorities of the London University may be moved to consider the desirability of beginning the examination in January at 10 A.M., both in Calcutta and in other centres in India, so that the first day's examination may, like those of subsequent days, be finished before it is dark.

Extract of a letter by Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

I request that the authorities of the London University may be moved to consider the desirability of beginning the examination in January at 10 A.M., both in Calcutta and in other centres in India, so that the first day's examination may, like those of subsequent days, be finished before it is dark.

CHIEF SECRETARY
4 MAY 1896
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

J. & P. 228.

INDIA OFFICE,

10th February 1896.

SIR,

With reference to my letter of the 15th December last, I am directed to forward to you copy of a letter which has been received from the Government of Bengal together with its enclosures and a sealed packet said to contain the answers and other papers of the three candidates who appeared at the Matriculation Examination of the University of London held at Calcutta in January last. I am to call your attention in particular to the request contained in paragraph 4 of Sir Alfred Croft's letter of the 18th ultimo, and to desire that you will be so good as to move the Senate of the University of London to comply with it if possible.

The Registrar,

University of London,

Burlington Gardens, W.

I am, &c.,

(Sd.) Horace Walpole.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON,

(Official.)

BURLINGTON GARDENS, W.,

18th February 1896.

SIR,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of two packets containing the answers of three candidates who presented themselves at Calcutta, and of three who presented themselves at Madras, for the recent Matriculation Examination of this University. The fees (£6) of the candidates who entered at Madras (one of whom, however, did not actually appear at the examination) have been duly received; but the fees from Calcutta (including those of four candidates who did not appear) have not yet come to hand.

I may also mention that the fee (£5) of a candidate who went through the LL.B. Examination at Madras early in January is also outstanding.

With reference to the paragraph in Sir Alfred Croft's letter of January 18th, to which you direct my attention, I have to state that the Senate will not object to the Matriculation Examination beginning at 10 A.M., instead of 2 P.M., provided it be arranged that the examination begin at the same hour at all the centres in India at which it is held.

I am, &c.,

(Sd.) Arthur Milman,

Registrar.

Sir Horace Walpole, K.C.B.,
