Charles James Weir Esquire, J.C.P., Collector of Ganjam.

Most Honored Sir,

The humble petition of Jayanti Ramamurti most respectfully sheweth.

(1) That your petitioner is an accountant
on Rs 30 in your honor's office, his permanent appointment being Rs 20.

(2) That your petitioner is a native of the Ganjam District and was mainly educated in the Government College Bhubaneswar.

(3) That your petitioner is a matriculate
of the Madras University.

(4) That owing to pecuniary difficulties your petitioner could not continue his studies.

(5) That your petitioner has put in a service of about six years in the Revenue Department.

(6) That your petitioner passed the following
Special Test Examinations.

- | | | |
|-----|---------------------|-------------------------------|
| (1) | Precis Writing | High |
| (2) | Translation Test | Lower Urdu |
| (3) | 20 | 80 Telugu |

- (8) That your petitioner secured the second place in the first class in the Judicial Test Criminal Lower grade
- (9) That your petitioner headed the list in the Second class in the Presidency in the Revenue Test Lower grade
- (10) That of all the candidates who went up for the Translation Test Lower grade your petitioner was the only man that secured success in the examination in the whole district
- (11) That your petitioner could not study for the Revenue and Criminal Higher owing to pressure of office work in the several appointments he held and owing partly to his ill health
- (12) That your petitioner has a great desire to appear for the two Higher but he is not eligible to appear for them
- (13) That your petitioner, therefore, most submissively prays that your honor will be graciously pleased to obtain, as a special case, the sanction of Government permitting him to appear for the Revenue Higher in 1896 and for the Criminal Higher in 1897 or for both the Higher in 1897 as he has no time to study for the two examinations this year (1896).

For which act of kindness your petitioner shall as in duty bound, ever pray.

Your petitioner begs to remain,
Most Honored Sir,

with the greatest respect,

Your most obedient servant
