Note.

The question of the main pay did not arise when the former G.O. was passed, & does not appear to have affected that G.O. in any way. The figure Rs. 65. was put in by the office, which was not aware that the man had been promoted. The amount of his actual pay seems to make no difference to the question.

CHIEF OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE,

FROM

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE,

To

THE Chief Secretary

SIR,

Enclosures.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of G.O. No 233, Educational, dated 10th April 1896, and to express my thanks to Government for having exempted my Circuit clerk Mahammad Asadulla Sahib from Precise Writing test. 2. Mahammad Asadulla Sahib was originally drawing Rs 54, and Colonel Porteous proposed to make his appointment to carry Rs 60-80. The Government in G.O. No 2860, Judicial, dated 24th November 1894, directed the incremental system to be abolished and this was carried out. G.O. No 653, Judicial, dated 28th March 1895. Mahammad Asadulla Sahib was given an appointment on Rs 65 (the only one then available for him) and subsequently, on a vacancy occurring in the office he was given Rs 75 subject to his passing the Precise Writing Examination.

Sho be 2861.

The Government has not empowered him to do if he held an appointment of Rs 65.

3. Muhammad Asadulla Sahib was given the Rs 45 appointment, as that appointment approximated what Colonel Porters intended him to have viz. an appointment from 60-80. The Deputy Inspectors General's travelling clerks rank as Inspectors and draw pay accordingly, and I do not think that Rs 45 is excessive pay for my travelling clerk, who has much more work. He should be in a position to carry some respect with the Inspectors and others with whom he has to deal. If the Government granted the exemption asked for, thinking Muhammad Asadulla Sahib had an appointment carrying Rs 65 and will not object to his having the Rs 45 he now has been drawing for some time, I hope the Government Order may be modified accordingly and my clerk allowed to retain his appointment on Rs 45.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedt. Servant,

M. Asadulla

Inspector General of Police.
