Education } Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No 211 Educational, dated the 4th April 1896, forwarding a memorial from the Manager of the Church of Scotland Mission College, Madras, in which he appeals against the orders of the Madras Government declining to increase the educational grant allotted to the institution by the Director of Public Instruction. The memorial also treats of certain other educational matters which are referred to in paragraphs of your letter.

2. In reply I am to say that, as observed in the Madras Government's order of 27th January 1896, the grants admissible under the Code are maximum sums. The question of increasing the grant to the Church of Scotland Mission College, which is primarily one of funds, lies entirely within the discretion of the Government of Madras, and the Government of India see no sufficient reason to interfere with the order which which have been passed by that Government in the matter.

The Government of Madras have, on the ground that they have not formed the subject of any petition for redress addressed to the Governor in Council, abstained from entering into the discussions upon questions of educational policy contained in the memorial and the requests such as those made in paras: 14 and 15 that the Government of India should cancel the order of the Madras Government making drawing compulsory in High Schools and instruct the Local Government not to make a subject compulsory in an aided institution unless it is prepared to increase sufficiently the aid given to the Manager.

The Government of India agree with the Madras Government that if the memorialist desires that their educational policy should be changed in any respect he should make representations to the Governor in Council with that object. The Government of India are not at the present time prepared to consider the questions of policy raised by the memorialist, and I am to request that he may be informed accordingly.

I have the honour to be,

Yours most obedt Servant,

J. P. Hewitt.

Secretary to the Govt: of India.
